Workshops In Space:

Sculpture Workshops as Space and Concept Jane Fejfer, Kristine Bøggild Johannsen, 2022-03-20 This book explores the multifaceted aspects of sculptor s workshops from the Renaissance to the early nineteenth century Contributors take a fresh look at the sculptor s workshop as both a physical and discursive space By studying some of the most prominent artists sculptural practices the workshop appears as a multifaceted sociable and practical space The book creates a narrative in which the sculptural workshop appears as a working laboratory where new measuring techniques new materials and new instruments were tested and became part of the lived experience of the artist and central to the works coming into being Artists covered include Donatello Roubilliac Thorvaldsen Canova and Christian Daniel Rauch The book will be of interest to scholars studying art history sculpture artist workshops and European studies Factories and Workshops Great Britain.

HM Factory Inspectorate, 1890 Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe C.J.J. Moses, Tobias Müller, Adela Taleb, 2022-09-05 The role of Islam in public spaces is one of the most prevalent political questions in Europe Contestations around the construction of mosques the ban of Islamic veils and populist rhetoric about problematic neighbourhoods indicate Europe s struggles with the place of its second largest religion This book advocates for an analytical turn in the study of Islam in Europe using space as a central conceptual lens While spatial approaches are gaining traction in the study of religion migration ethnicity race and politics the chapters in this book argue that the critical potential of a spatialised analysis in the field of Islam in Europe remains largely unexplored This volume presents a collection of nine empirical studies that offer insights into how scholars might exploit the category of space when analysing both current political issues and broader conceptual questions in the social sciences And more specifically how does a spatial perspective on Islam contribute to a deeper understanding of the formations of the state ethnicity race secularism gender and colonial structures Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe is a significant new contribution to racial and ethnic studies in Europe and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Politics Sociology Social and Political Geography Anthropology and Religious Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a 2021 special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Creating Sacred Space with Feng Shui Karen Kingston, 1997-01-01 Provides simple and effective techniques on how to create harmony and abundance by clearing and enhancing home and workplace energies and explains the link between inner peace and the buildings in which we live Original A Separate Space Michael Spirtas, Yool Kim, Frank Camm, Shirley M. Ross, Debra Knopman, Forrest E. Morgan, Sebastian Joon Bae, M. Scott Bond, John S. Crown, Elaine Simmons, 2020-03-13 As the United States creates the Space Force as a service within the Department of the Air Force RAND assessed which units to bring into the Space Force analyzed career field sustainability and drew lessons from other defense organizations The report focuses on implications for effectiveness efficiency independence and sense of identity for the new service Workshop: The Art of Creative Inquiry Warren Linds, Tony Gee, 2023-06-26 This book explores tools and techniques for creating the arts with groups It provides insights into why workshops are such an effective and relevant form of creative practice Throughout two experienced practitioners share successful principles and qualities They also include examples of workshops that explore ways of facilitating creative exploration The authors believe that underpinning any good workshop practice is an understanding of what constitutes a workshop This is a process in which the relationship between artist researcher and participant audience maker and witness is fluid It extends each individual s abilities and connects doing to learning to inquiring in a single process The book itself is a dialogue on and an investigation into this practice It fully explores the specificities of workshop practice in relation to how it engages others in arts based research Readers learn how workshops involve inquiry into six areas inquiry into subjects artistic processes skills self the world and relationships with others In the end this informed investigation helps practitioners to better reflect on their own approaches to arts based inquiry and research This in turn leads to a better understanding of how readers can use workshops for the maximum benefit of all participants both individuals and groups
