World History: Connections to Today Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Pearson/Prentice Hall, 2003-12 Resources in Education, 1990 Cosmopolitan Connections Mark Anthony Falzon, 2004-09-01 This volume looks at a diasporic community of Indian traders It draws on anthropological field research as well as archival sources to portray a cosmopolitan group united by ties of kinship and community which are reproduced across space through processes such as the circulation of women and family visiting These ties have their counterpart in the economic sphere which is characterised by sets of translocal trading linkages credit relations and a heightened knowledge of markets and a readiness to explore them A model for the relation between mobility and commerce is thus explored The book which includes a number of maps and original photographs is ground breaking in that it uses the technique of multi sited ethnography in which data from different sites are juxtaposed into a broad synthesis It is geared towards a broad audience World History: Connections to Today Prentice Hall (School Division), Navigating World History P.
