World History Of Art:

A World History of Art Hugh Honour, John Fleming, 2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity's artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression

Art in World History Mary Hollingsworth, 2003 Throughout history art has been an essential component of every era and civilization With over 1 300 illustrations and written for both students and general readers Art in World History offers an impressive new perspective on the artistic and architectural expressions of cultures across the world and throughout time It examines art and its role in history chronologically and between East and West as it was influenced by religions conquests and civilizations From the cave paintings of Lascaux to Picasso from the pyramids of ancient Egypt to Chinese terracotta Art in World History vividly demonstrates how human perceptions of art and space have evolved with the ages

A World History of Art Hugh Honour, John Fleming, 1984

Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, Catherine Dossin, Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel, 2016-03-03 The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a reevaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses

The History of Art Jean Robertson, Deborah S. Hutton, 2022 Written by a team of expert authors this landmark textbook shows that art is more than European and extends far beyond the traditional canon. The History of Art A Global View answers the urgent need for a more global inclusive way to teach the history of the world's art. Led by Jean Robertson and Deborah Hutton, eleven specialists have cohered around the shared goal of bringing multiple perspectives to a worldwide narrative. The resulting survey represents every global region as an important part of an integrated chronological history that emphasizes cross-cultural connections, contrasts, and comparisons. The first major art history textbook of the 21st century, The History of Art A Global View equips students to understand the history of art in new and revealing ways.
