Judgment and Decision Making David Hardman, 2009-02-09. Judgment and Decision Making is a refreshingly accessible text that explores the wide variety of ways people make judgments. It examines assessments of probability, frequency, and causation, as well as how decisions are rendered under conditions of risk and uncertainty. Topics covered include dynamic everyday and group decision making, individual differences, and the nature of mind and brain in relation to judgment and decision making. Offering up-to-date theoretical coverage including perspectives from evolutionary psychology and neuroscience, this volume has everything a psychology student needs for BPS accreditation, whilst drawing out the practical applications for non-psychology students with plentiful examples from business, economics, sport, law, and medicine. The latest addition to the BPS Textbooks in Psychology series, this thorough text provides a succinct, reader-friendly account of the field of judgment and decision making.
