Introduction

In 2004 the International Peace Bureau awarded the International Institute on Peace Education (IIPE) the 2004 UNWOMEN Peace Education Prize. In the nomination it described the IIPE as “probably the most effective agent for the introduction of peace education to many educators than any other single non-governmental agency.”<sup>1</sup> In a world where for too few opportunities exist for teacher training in peace education, for 26 years the IIPE has been providing unique theoretical, methodical, cooperative learning experiences in peace education. Briefly, the IIPE brings together educators and professionals from around the world to learn with and from each other in alternative learning communities that model principles of critical, participatory peace pedagogy. The IIPE has two primary goals: 1) to provide learning experiences and exposure to formal and non-formal education in the context pedagogy and Writing Spaces: Readings on Writings, Vol. 2 Charles Lowe, Pavel Zemliansky, Volumes in Writing Spaces Readings on Writing offer multiple perspectives on a wide range of topics about writing In each chapter authors present their unique views insights and strategies for writing by addressing the undergraduate reader directly Drawing on their own experiences these teachers as writers invite students to join in the larger conversation about the craft of writing Consequently each essay functions as a standalone text that can easily complement other selected readings in writing or writing intensive courses across the disciplines at any level

New Black and African Writing: Volume 2 Smith, Charles, Emezue, GMT, 2015-10-07
NEW BLACK AND AFRICAN WRITING Vol 2 is our concluding edition of a series that has featured many critical entries and reviews on canonical African fiction poetry drama and non fiction This second edition explores intricacies of relationships and associations the recurrent tropes for the interpretation and understanding of historical connections and the shaping of thought brought into fictional and cultural renditions that are evolving and continually reassessed although around the periphery of older canons The quest for a meaningful heuristic for approaching contemporary arts is almost totally redefined by the contributions of eminent scholars of our time whose balancing and correspondence create room for complementarity of values and toward cultural understanding and value appreciation in contemporary society

Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks, Volume 11, Part 1 Søren Kierkegaard, 2019-11-26 For over a century the Danish thinker Søren Kierkegaard 1813-55 has been at the center of a number of important discussions concerning not only philosophy and theology but also more recently fields such as social thought psychology and contemporary aesthetics especially literary theory Despite his relatively short life Kierkegaard was an extraordinarily prolific writer as attested to by the 26 volume Princeton University Press edition of all of his published writings But Kierkegaard left behind nearly as much unpublished writing most of which consists of what are called his journals and notebooks Kierkegaard has long been recognized as one of history's great journal keepers but only rather small portions of his journals and notebooks are what we usually understand by the term diaries By far the greater part of Kierkegaard's journals and notebooks consists of reflections on a myriad of subjects philosophical religious political personal Studying his journals and notebooks takes us into his workshop where we can see his entire universe of thought We can witness the genesis of his published works to be sure but we can also see whole galaxies of concepts new insights and fragments large and small of partially or almost entirely completed but unpublished works Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced Volume 11 Part 1 and Volume 11 Part 2 present an exciting enlightening and enormously varied treasure trove of papers that were found carefully sorted and stored by Kierkegaard himself in his apartment after his death These papers many of which have never before been published in English provide a window into many different aspects of Kierkegaard s life and creativity Volume 11 Part 1 includes items from his earliest formative years through his extensive studies at the university and up to the publication of Either Or These materials include Kierkegaard s studies in biblical exegesis his reading of theologians such as Schleiermacher and Baader his concern with aesthetic matters including a lengthy consideration of the Faust legend his first trial sermon delivered at the Pastoral Seminary his views on the burgeoning field of political journalism in the 1830s and a group of papers he titled The First Rudiments of Either Or The Green Book Some Particulars that were not Used The New Music Review and Church Music Review ,1928
