Writing America:

Writing America Shelley Fisher Fishkin, 2015-11-11 Winner of the John S Tuckey 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award for Mark Twain Scholarship from The Center for Mark Twain Studies American novelist E L Doctorow once observed that literature endows places with meaning Yet as this wide ranging new book vividly illustrates understanding the places that shaped American writers lives and their art can provide deep insight into what makes their literature truly meaningful Published on the eve of the 50th anniversary of the Historic Preservation Act Writing America is a unique passionate and eclectic series of meditations on literature and history covering over 150 important National Register historic sites all pivotal to the stories that make up America from chapels to battlefields from plantations to immigration stations and from theaters to internment camps The book considers not only the traditional sites for literary tourism such as Mark Twain s sumptuous Connecticut home and the peaceful woods surrounding Walden Pond but also locations that highlight the diversity of American literature from the New York tenements that spawned Abraham Cahan s fiction to the Texas pump house that irrigated the fields in which the farm workers central to Gloria Anzald a s poetry picked produce Rather than just providing a cursory overview of these authors achievements acclaimed literary scholar and cultural historian Shelley Fisher Fishkin offers a deep and personal reflection on how key sites bore witness to the struggles of American writers and inspired their dreams She probes the global impact of American writers innovative art and also examines the distinctive contributions to American culture by American writers who wrote in languages other than English including Yiddish Chinese and Spanish Only a scholar with as wide ranging interests as Shelley Fisher Fishkin would dare to bring together in one book writers as diverse as Gloria Anzald a Nicholas Black Elk David Bradley Abraham Cahan S Alice Callahan Raymond Chandler Frank Chin Elizabeth Cook Lynn Countee Cullen Frederick Douglass Paul Laurence Dunbar Jessie Fauset William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald Allen Ginsberg Jovita Gonz lez Rolando Hinojosa Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston Lawson Fusao Inada James Weldon Johnson Erica Jong Maxine Hong Kingston Irena Klepfisz Nella Larsen Emma Lazarus Sinclair Lewis Genny Lim Claude McKay Herman Melville N Scott Momaday William Northup John Okada Min Okubo Simon Ortiz Am rico Paredes John P Parker Ann Petry Tom s Rivera Wendy Rose Morris Rosenfeld John Steinbeck Harriet Beecher Stowe Henry David Thoreau Mark Twain Yoshiko Uchida Tino Villanueva Nathanael West Walt Whitman Richard Wright Hisaye Yamamoto Anzia Yezierska and Zitkala a Leading readers on an enticing journey across the borders of physical places and imaginative terrains the book includes over 60 images and extended excerpts from a variety of literary works Each chapter ends with resources for further exploration Writing America reveals the alchemy though which American writers have transformed the world around them into art changing their world and ours in the process Writing America Katherine Wood (editor of Writing America.), Virginia Cohen, 1999 Richard Wright *Writing America at Home and from Abroad Virginia Whatley Smith, 2016-06-27 Contributions by Robert J Butler Ginevra Geraci Yoshinobu Hakutani Floyd W Hayes III Joseph Keith Toru

Kiuchi John Lowe Sachi Nakachi Virginia Whatley Smith and John Zheng Critics in this volume reassess the prescient nature of Richard Wright's mind as well as his life and body of writings especially those directly concerned with America and its racial dynamics This edited collection offers new readings and understandings of the particular America that became Wright's focus at the beginning of his career and was still prominent in his mind at the end Virginia Whatley Smith's edited collection examines Wright's fixation with America at home and from abroad his oppression by rejection of conflict with revolts against and flight from America Other people have written on Wright's revolutionary heroes his difficulties with the FBI and his works as a postcolonial provocateur but none have focused singly on his treatment of America Wherever Wright traveled he always positioned himself as an African American as he compared his experiences to those at hand However as his domestic settlements changed to international residences Wright's craftsmanship changed as well To convey his cultural message Wright created characters themes and plots that would expose arbitrary and whimsical American policies oppressive rules which would invariably ensnare Wright's protagonists and sink them more deeply into the quagmire of racial subjugation as they grasped for a fleeting moment of freedom Smith's collection brings to the fore new ways of looking at Wright particularly his post Native Son international writings Indeed no critical interrogations have considered the full significance of Wright's masterful crime fictions In addition the author's haiku poetry complements the fictional pieces addressed here reflecting Wright's attitude toward America as he near the end of his life searched for nirvana his antidote to American racism
