Writing and Learning Across the Curriculum, 11-16 Nancy Martin,1976      Writing and Learning Across the Curriculum, 11-16 ,1980      Writing and Learning Across the Curriculum, 11-16 Nancy Martin,Schools Council Project,1976 Results of the British Schools Council project Writing across the curriculum 11 16      Writing as a Learning Tool Päivi Tynjälä,L. Mason,K. Lonka,2012-12-06 In a brief summary the debate concerning the nature of writing processes is about whether the essential characteristic of expertise in writing is a matter of mastering problem solving strategies In this respect the role of social and interactive factors such as writers familiarity with the particular genre in which they are writing and their relationship with the discourse community in which they are participating have been pointed out e g Nystrand 1989 According to the socio interactive approach which refers to Vygotsky s theory the composition process is a dialogue between the writer and the reader made possible by socially shared knowledge The meaning of a text is a social construct that is negotiated between the reader and the writer through the medium of the text The importance of motivational aspects has also been highlighted by two main lines of research studies of the relationship between writing and self efficacy e g Pajares Benton Corkill Sharp Downey Khramtsova 1995 Hidi McLaren 1990 1991 Self efficacy in this context individuals beliefs about their ability to produce certain types of texts have been found to be predictive of writing skills strategy use and writing performance      Teaching and Learning Literacy David Wray,2012-09-10 David Wray offers a range of practical suggestions for enhancing literacy work in primary and secondary schools KS 1 3 The book is based on the idea that the purpose of literacy teaching is to enable pupils to understand and create meaningful whole texts It deliberately takes a cross curricular view of literacy and will appeal to teachers who specialize in a range of subjects It also explores in depth the processes involved in both understanding and composing a range of text types avoiding the temptation to segment literacy skills thereby losing sight of the overall purpose The book is aimed at primary teachers and student teachers with an interest in extending their pupils experiences of texts across the curriculum and at secondary teachers especially English teachers who wish to include in their subject teaching more explicit attention to their pupils literacy skills      Resources in Education ,1979      The South Carolina Review ,1991      Writing Instruction in the Classroom Rebecca Schoenike Nowacek,2001      Fit to Print Joanne Buckley,1995      How to Use Writing for Teaching and Learning Suzanne S.
