Writing Culture:

Women Writing Culture Ruth Behar, Deborah A. Gordon, 1995 Extrait de la couverture Here for the first time is a book that brings women's writings out of exile to rethink anthropology's purpose at the end of the century As a historical resource the collection undertakes fresh readings of the work of well known women anthropologists and also reclaims the writings of women of color for anthropology As a critical account it bravely interrogates the politics of authorship As a creative endeavor it embraces new Feminist voices of ethnography that challenge prevailing definitions of theory and experimental writing

Beyond Writing Culture Karsten Kumoll, 2010 This is a book that will attract a great deal of attention among anthropologists and social scientists in general It is a great advance on earlier critiques of Writing Culture 1986 that have emerged at intervals a large number of them cited by the contributors Its strength lies particularly in its transdisciplinary perspectives and the clarity of both critique and new representations The prologue is a tour de force Joan Vincent Professor Emerita Barnard College Columbia University Writing Cultures and Literary Media Anna Kiernan, 2021-07-20 This Pivot investigates the impact of the digital on literary culture through the analysis of selected marketing narratives social media stories and reading communities Drawing on the work of contemporary writers from Bernardine Evaristo to Patricia Lockwood each chapter addresses a specific tension arising from the overarching question How has writing culture changed in this digital age By examining shifting modes of literary production this book considers how discourses of writing and publishing and hierarchies of cultural capital circulate in a socially motivated post digital environment Writing Cultures and Literary Media combines compelling accounts of book trends reader reception and interviews with writers and publishers to reveal fresh insights for students practitioners and scholars of writing publishing and communications Man and Culture Clark Wissler, 1923 1923 A group of lectures given by Wissler at the State Universities of Michigan Iowa Nebraska and Kansas and also before the Anthropological Society of St Louis and the Galton Society of New York The object of these lectures was to present the problems and scope of contemporary anthropology and recognizing that the most pertinent question before us as a people is the relation of civilization to man the emphasis in these pages has been placed upon culture and its biological background Historical Writing in American Culture Bert James Loewenberg, 1968 Women Working at Writing Wendy Ripley, 1996 Travels in Portugal Oswald Crawford, 1875 Proceedings of the Annual Session Iowa State Teachers' Association, 1887 "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 1989", 1989 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020

Cultural Differences in Academic Rhetoric Anna Mauranen, 1993 Academic writing is rhetorical and culturally conditioned What in one culture appears as effective and proper can in a new cultural context look like chaotic writing and sloppy thinking To discover the ways in which such impressions are made we need careful textual analysis of academic writing in different cultural contexts This book takes a textlinguistic approach and contrasts academic journal articles in a large and dominant culture Anglo American a small and peripheral one Finnish and the intercultural products of the small culture members writing in the dominant language Finns in English The results indicate that academics do have culture specific writing styles and that textlinguistic tools are crucial if we want to expand our understanding of written communication
