Writing Pauline Wisdom From A Long Life:

Writing Pauline Gail J. Stearns, 2005-09-27 Once in awhile we are confronted with a person's life and insight so remarkable we pause to reflect upon our own beliefs meaning maturing theory and theology This memoir of Pauline Thompson encompasses the astonishing life and career of a twentieth century woman a life that variously embraced religious symbolism Jungian analysis protests and arrests careers in education and medicine as well as relationships ranging from bigamous to bisexual Writing Pauline Wisdom From A Long Life explores how Thompson's reflections pose challenges to our common and academic notions of feminist theory ethical development Christian theology Jungian psychology and ethnographic research

Open Your Eyes Toward Living More Deeply in the Present Gail J. Stearns, 2010-10-01 In order to discover inner peace and peace in our world we will need to let go of traditional understandings of pain and suffering as God's will We will need to stop claiming that Christianity contains elite exclusive truths We learn here from the Jesus of the Gospel of Mark how to open our eyes and awaken to the Presence of God here and now Gail Stearns brings insight from biblical scholars spiritual leaders and her own experience as a pastor and university teacher to move us to a place where we can dwell more deeply in the present and live in a more compassionate world Liberating Mindfulness

Stearns, Gail J., 2022-05-18 Attempts to reclaim mindfulness from the commercial and corporate juggernaut it has become and to demonstrate its usefulness in spiritual including Christian life Invest Your Humanity Julye Bidmead, Gail J. Stearns, 2016-03-02 This volume is dedicated to Marvin C Meyer a person of passionate spirit and personality known to many as the preeminent scholar who brought to life the Gnostic Gospels Meyer made ancient discoveries relevant to our lives from his work with National Geographic informing thousands to the time he spent with individual students opening their eyes to the mystery and meaning of a Coptic text Friends students and scholars here pay tribute to Meyer with reflections new pedagogies and explorations in biblical texts ancient magic and archaeological discoveries The Promises of God Kevin P. Conway, 2014-10-29 This study is the first to investigate why Paul makes exclusive use of epangelia for the divine pledge when referring to the Abrahamic covenant a usage of the term never found in the OT LXX After examining Jewish writings and Greek literature of the classical and Hellenistic periods this study demonstrates that Paul is rather unique in his exclusive use of the epangelia word group for the divine pledge and for using the term predominantly in reference to the Abrahamic promises This exclusive usage is further deemed unexpected in that the horkos and onymia lexemes are by far the terms most commonly associated with God's promises to Abraham in the OT the literature with which Paul was most familiar The study then moves to explain why Paul has chosen this path of discontinuity where it is argued that Paul's exclusive choice of epangelia for the divine promise is driven by its conceptual and linguistic correspondence with the euangelion one of the terms Paul adopted from the early church that forms the core of his ministry This conceptual word study of the divine promise will benefit Pauline scholars interested in Paul's use of the OT as well as his association of the
