She knew how i felt about the hele thing but she did it anyways.

Yesterday we were so discouraged. After years of searching we finally located the shipwreck but the weather turned terrible. Today, we were back at the dive site on a beautiful day. It was rumored that the shipwreck was full of treasure.

I hope today is the day we finally get to dive on the wreck. I said to Captain Mel.

Well the weather conditions are much better today. We should be able to dive all day. he replied.

We put on all of our equipment, then jumped over the side. The sunshine pierced the waves and illuminated the wreck. I slowly descended to the bottom. The wreck was amazing and the water was so clear. I briefly looked around while taking it all in. The wooden ship decayed in some parts. The cannons were scattered all over the ocean floor. I could barely contain myself as the hunt for treasure started. I swept the sand away with my hands around what was left of the wooden beams. Then out of the corner of my eye I saw something green shining about three feet in front of me. I flagged Captain Mel over. I reached my hand down to pluck it out of the sand. It wasn't just one emerald, but hundreds. There were emeralds diamonds and gold. We did it. We finally found the lost treasure!
