Subcommittee on Retirement Income and Employment,1978 The Future of Work, Employment and Social Protection Peter Auer,Bernard Gazier,2002

This volume comprises the papers and debates of the second France ILO Symposium on the future of work employment and social protection Reflecting the aim of the Symposium itself the book provides in depth reflections on work employment and social protection Designed to be more than an account of the discussions this book is a useful tool for all those interested in labour market transition and the increasing importance of female labour for the future of the labour markets particularly in the developed world The book discusses the need for more family friendly policies and a more radical policy of equality between the sexes The legal dimensions of labour market change are also debated and the book explores the positive and negative sides of globalization and its links with technological change Annual Report Iowa State Horticultural Society, Des Moines,1890

The Future of War Jan Bloch,William Thomas Stead,1899 The Great Skills Gap Jason

Wingard,Christine Farrugia,2021-06-08 An extraordinary confluence of forces stemming from automation and digital technologies is transforming both the world of work and the ways we educate current and future employees to contribute productively to the workplace The Great Skills Gap opens with the premise that the exploding scope and pace of technological innovation in the digital age is fast transforming the fundamental nature of work Due to these developments the skills and preparation that employers need from their talent pool are shifting The accelerated pace of evolution and disruption in the competitive business landscape demands that workers be not only technically proficient but also exceptionally agile in their capacity to think and act creatively and quickly learn new skills This book explores how these transformative forces are or should be driving innovations in how colleges and universities prepare students for their careers

Focused on the impact of this confluence of forces at the nexus of work and higher education the book's contributors an illustrious group of leading educators prominent employers and other thought leaders answer profound questions about how business and higher education can best collaborate in support of the twenty first century workforce
