Soviet Military Power William J. Koenig, 1983 The most significant strategic development in the second half of the twentieth century has been the emergence of the Soviet Union as a superpower This dominant position is firmly founded on military strength and the Soviet Union s relentless expansionist policies would be impossible without the support of strongly manned and well equipped armed forces More than for any other nation the USSR s political position in Europe and throughout the world depends on the might of the Soviet war machine Even in internal affairs the generals and admirals have massive influence on the development of Soviet policy Jacket flap Soviet Military Power ,1984
