Space Dog Visits Planet Earth:

Space Dog Visits Planet Earth Vivian French,2000-10-01 Space Dog must rescue Green Moon and Pink Arkle from the sticky web that the Spindlers have woven from all the smoke and bad smells that come from long tubes attached to every building on a planet called Earth Space Dog Visits Planet Earth Random House,2001-01-01 Science-fiction Everett Franklin Bleiler,Richard Bleiler,1998 Complementing Science Fiction The Early Years which surveys science fiction published in book form from its beginnings through 1930 the present volume covers all the science fiction printed in the genre magazines Amazing Astounding and Wonder along with offshoots and minor magazines from 1926 through 1936 This is the first time this historically important literary phenomenon which stands behind the enormous modern development of science fiction has been studied thoroughly and accurately The heart of the book is a series of descriptions of all 1 835 stories published during this period plus bibliographic information Supplementing this are many useful features detailed histories of each of the magazines an issue by issue roster of contents a technical analysis of the art work brief authors biographies poetry and letter indexes a theme and motif index of approximately 30 000 entries and general indexes Science Fiction The Gernsback Years is not only indispensable for reference librarians collectors readers and scholars interested in science fiction it is also of importance to the study of popular culture during the Great Depression in the United States Most of its data which are largely based on rare and almost unobtainable sources are not available elsewhere The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000 Someone Else's Face in the Mirror Carla Bluhm,Nathan Clendenin,2009-04-30 In 2005 surgeons in France removed part of the face from a cadaver and grafted it onto the head of a 38 year old woman grossly disfigured by a dog attack Three years later in December 2008 surgeons at the Cleveland Clinic announced they had performed the first U S face transplant Although modern culture is accustomed to pushing medicine and the human body beyond all limits the world s first partial face transplant and the seven that have followed have caused a stir that still reverberates globally This book begins with the story of Isabelle Dinoire the recipient of the first face transplant and chronicles her surgery and battles with tissue rejection Its scope widens with a look at how surgical teams including three U S transplant teams are in a global race to perform the first full face transplant and at how medical history has led up to this point with prior successful transplants ranging from body parts as simple as cornea to those as neurologically complicated as the heart a hand and a penis The most novel among these surgeries the face transplant conjures up particular and expansive psychological issues Authors Bluhm and Clendenin show how transplant recipients struggle with functional issues including a lifetime of anti rejection drugs a danger highlighted by the recent death of the second face transplant patient in China But just as challenging in the case of face transplant is the psychological effect on and potential threat to identity Who are you if suddenly your face or a significant portion of it is not what you were born with What is it like to look in the mirror and see a face that is not the one you have always had Dinoire lamented It will never be me That statement is an absolute simplification of the identity issues a face transplant can create explain the authors Bluhm and Clendenin show how across history and media humankind via medicine literature film and other media has dreamed of a day when face transplants would be possible With so many disfigurements occurring among the military in Iraq and experimental face transplants too expensive for implementation in the private sector it is likely that the U S military will take the reins and further face transplant techniques as quickly as possible to serve injured personnel International UFO Library: Vol. 3 No. 3 Joseph J.
