Spain In The Heart:

España en El Corazón Pablo Neruda,2006 Neruda s epic hymn against fascism Spain in Our Hearts now available in this pocket Bibelot edition Spain ,1937 España en el corazón Pablo Neruda,1993 Spain in the Heart is a book that comes back to haunt us every time that the pentagons of the world start the motors of their death machines and proceed to invade massacre and burn an innocent people Now we open it once again and discover that it hasn t changed that it is still unyielding ample made of multiple voices gloriously singing as the milicianos march on Fernanco AlegriaMy book Spain in the Heart was printed during the Spanish Civil War in a unique way I believe few books in the extraordinary history of so many books have had such a curious birth and destiny The soldiers learned to set type But there was no paper They found an old paper mill and decided to make it there A strange mixture was concocted in the midst of falling bombs in the midst of battle They threw everything they could get their hands on into the mill from an enemy flag to a bloody tunic of a Moorish soldier And in spite of the unusual materials used and the total inexperience of its manufacturers the paper turned out to be very beautiful My book was the pride of those men who had worked to bring out my poetry in defiance of death and I learned that many carried copies of the book in their knapsacks instead of their own food and clothing With their knapsacks over their shoulders they set out on the long march to France The endless column walking to exile was bombed hundreds of times Soldiers fell and the books were strewn over the road The last copies of this impassioned book that was born and perished in the midst of fierce fighting were burned in a bonfire Pablo Neruda from Memoirs Highlights in Heart Failure and Transplantation: 2021 Emma Birks,Matteo Cameli,2022-04-21 The Role of Sex in Heart Failure and Transplantation Manuel Martínez-Sellés,Antoni Bayes-Genis,Ana Ayesta,Adrian Marco Baranchuk,Beatriz Diaz Molina,2021-07-22 *España En El Corazon.
