Spatial Relations Poems:

Spatial Relations Leonora Smith, 2001 Readable and inviting Spatial Relations reminds us of the power in everyday places and objects and the mysterious space between them Like the fold up shapes in old junior high school aptitude tests they are both concrete and bewildering The characters and personae in these poems including mythologized versions of Smith s parents yearn for big emotions for high living for what they have tasted and touched loved and lost This is a book that will invite you to remember imagine and laugh more often than you might expect The poems in this collection have a rueful lively sense of humor an underlying impatience with social inequity and a willingness to imagine that things might be playing themselves out differently in some parallel universe Like anyone who has narrowly escaped a life of domestic confinement these poems have a wild streak

Textual Practice Terence Hawkes,2005-08-04 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company A Postmodern Reading of Visual Poetry Mahmoud Sokar,2020-03-17 Thesis M A from the year 2016 in the subject Literature Comparative Literature grade 100 course MA language English abstract This study aims at clarifying and defining the development of visual poetry movement through the term postmodernism Moreover it tries to focus on the major features of postmodernism applied in some modern visual poems written or designed by contemporary and modern visual poets These features are iconoclasm groundlessness formlessness populism intertextuality pastiche hyper reality and techno culture Then it moves to give a detailed account of the features of post postmodernism in the genre especially in Fluxus visual poems which are also known as performance poems The Writings of Herman Melville: Published poems Herman Melville,1968 Keeping an Open Mind Rebecca Pyeon,2019 The three poems of interest in this thesis Samuel Taylor Coleridge s Kubla Khan Percy Bysshe Shelley s Mont Blanc and John Keats s Ode to Psyche complicate relationships between the poet his internal world and his external world This is accomplished in all three poems through the conjuring up of a physical region which establishes an awareness of spatial relations between the poet and the space in which he dwells I explore how the poems speakers position themselves and other entities relative to these outside features in ways that enable a more vivid expression of the nonexistence of distinct divisions Through the exploration of ambiguous boundaries in the relationships that the speaker holds with the external world we consider the reach of poetry beyond the physical and temporal limitations of the poem s space and towards new worlds Proust and Rilke E. F. N. Jephcott,1972 The Western Humanities Review ,2004 Psychic Research Quarterly ,1924 Psyche ,1924 Basic Assumptions about Spatial Relationships in the Men and Women Poems of Robert Browning Zhigang Yin,1988 Essays in Literature ,1978 Psyche Charles Kay Ogden,1924 Our Faith and the Causes of War Joseph Russell Smith,1920 Principles of Literary Criticism Ivor Armstrong Richards,1926 The Menorah Journal ,1915 The Place of God in Piers Plowman and Medieval Art Mary Clemente Davlin,2001 Very few poets except the authors of the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament have tried to write in any extended way about God Even Dante confines his vision of Christ and the Trinity to a few passages at the end of Paradiso and most religious lyric poets concentrate more on their own attitudes and reactions to God their prayer longing repentance suffering or joy than on the nature of God Among English poems three narratives Piers Plowman Paradise Lost and Paradise Regained are exceptional in their extensive explicit poetry about god and their direct concern with the mysteries of Biblical faith This work looks at Piers Plowman confronting not only the alterity of culture resulting from a lapse of almost 700 years but also the more profound alterity of the subject matter Reading Visual Poetry After Futurism Michael Webster,1995 Early in the century poets expanded the possibilities of their genre by creating sound poems by dispensing with syntax and punctuation and by arranging words and letters across the page in new visual patterns This book explores ways of reading the aesthetically challenging and semiotically subversive texts created by four poets F T Marinetti 1876 1944 Kurt Schwitters 1887 1948 and e e cummings 1894 1962 The book shows us how to read these experimental texts in a variety of interrelated ways as products of each poet s individual aesthetic as part of the avant garde s reaction to aestheticism as efforts to bring art closer to life and as attempts to create a new kind of semiotically and aesthetically open work The book concludes by emphasizing the individual invention of its four central figures rather than placing them in their usual roles as precursors to the concrete poetry movement of the fifties
