Cornish John PRIDEAUX (Bishop of Worcester.),1841 The Bible Doctrine of Prayer Charles E. Simmons,1892 Learn to Pray Martin Murphy,2016 Prayer is a means of grace offered according to the will of God as expressed in the Bible Prayer is the speech of the soul Prayer is nothing else than the opening up of our heart before God so said John Calvin The Psalmist says Pour out your heart before Him God is a refuge for us Psalm 62 8 Christians should empty themselves before the Lord so that their desires are presented to the Lord God created us sustains us governs us redeemed us and gives us His grace so it should be natural to offer up our desires to God It is a great privilege to appear before God with our desires but because we are sinners we need Christ to intercede for us Since we are sinners we must approach Him humbly with a humble heart Christians will find refuge in God but they must seek His mercy in humility and confession of sin in prayer Prayer must be offered earnestly with thanksgiving Colossians 4 3 The Word of God instructs us to pray without ceasing 1 Thessalonians 5 17 The question is often asked How can we pray without ceasing This is an action that is habitually repeated at regular intervals with perseverance but perseverance in prayer is conditioned by a thankful heart Teach Me How to Pray T. The Christian Doctrine of Prayer James Freeman Clarke,2015-07-07 Excerpt from The Christian Doctrine of Prayer An Essay There are two kinds of Prayer the Prayer of Faith and the Prayer of Form Men must either pray in earnest because they expect their prayer to accomplish something and ask God for what they want just as they would ask any one else expecting to get it and this kind of prayer I call the Prayer of Faith Or they must pray as a matter of propriety and from a sense of duty because prayer is beautiful or because prayer is commanded and this kind of prayer I call the Prayer of Form Now when people get to praying as a form a proper beautiful excellent form though it be they will soon leave off praying at all A certain insincerity is felt in such a work We cannot go on with it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
