The Dragons' Gift Betsy McCall,2002-03-28 The Children of Daela Elementals of Earth have survived for more than ten millennia and for some seven of them have waged a long and costly war against the Ishada an equally powerful race of beings who covet their power over the elements of earth Their allies are the Dragons formed from the union of Fire and Air each is sworn to defend the other and for performing such a service the Dragons offer Dagnan Te Daelan a gift a child with frightening power a child with the power to save them and end this long war or to destroy them The Dragon's Gift

Terese Tse Bartholomew,John Johnston,Honolulu Academy of Arts,2008 The Dragon s Gift offers a rare opportunity to introduce to the wider international audience some of the most sacred Buddhist images of Bhutan From the wealth of material surveyed the organizers of the exhibition have selected over one hundred objects of superior aesthetic achievement and deep religious significance the vast majority of which have never before been seen in the West Nearly all of the works of art presented in this catalogue are from active temples and monasteries and remain in ritual use Most of the items are painted or textile thangkas or gilt bronze sculptures which date primarily from the 17th to the 19th centuries a golden age in the Buddhist arts of Bhutan Ranging from depictions of Tantric deities to individualized portraits of Buddhist masters the exhibition and catalogue present outstanding works of art with a wide iconographic scope For the Buddhist people of Bhutan these sacred items are conceived as supports along the journey to enlightenment and are of vital spiritual significance Complementing the presentation of sacred works of art is the documentation of the ancient Cham dances of Bhutan to which the dance preservation team was given privileged entree Having documented over three hundred hours of sacred and secular dances they have made a first assay of one of the few surviving treasures of the trans Himalayan movement tradition These differing approaches to the visual and moving arts provide further insight into the unique experience of Buddhism in Bhutan A brief sampling of the variety of extant dance lineages some many centuries old is included on the DVD contained within the catalogue Publisher s website The Dragon's Gift

Deborah Brautigam,2011-04-07 Is China a rogue donor as some media pundits suggest Or is China helping the developing world pave a pathway out of poverty as the Chinese claim In the last few years China s aid program has leapt out of the shadows Media reports about huge aid packages support for pariah regimes regiments of Chinese labor and the ruthless exploitation of workers and natural resources in some of the poorest countries in the world sparked fierce debates These debates however took place with very few hard facts China s tradition of secrecy about its aid fueled rumors and speculation making it difficult to gauge the risks and opportunities provided by China s growing embrace This well timed book by one of the world s leading experts provides the first comprehensive account of China s aid and economic cooperation overseas Deborah Brautigam tackles the myths and realities explaining what the Chinese are doing how they do it how much aid they give and how it all fits into their going global strategy Drawing on three decades of experience in China and Africa and hundreds of interviews in Africa China Europe and the US Brautigam shines

new light on a topic of great interest China has ended poverty for hundreds of millions of its own citizens Will Chinese engagement benefit Africa Using hard data and a series of vivid stories ranging across agriculture industry natural resources and governance Brautigam s fascinating book provides an answer It is essential reading for anyone concerned with China s rise and what it might mean for the challenge of ending poverty in Africa
