Worklife Transitions:

Worklife Transitions Paul E. Barton, 1982 Sustaining Employability Through Work-life Learning Stephen Billett, Henning Salling Olesen, Laurent Fillettaz, 2023-06-30 This book seeks to advance understandings of and approaches to supporting and sustaining working age adults learning across lengthening working lives and inevitable transitions they encounter and are required to negotiate It is founded on the processes and findings of a three phase practical inquiry into worklife learning and its implications for workplace and educations practice conducted in Australia over a three year period commencing in 2019 Diverse perspectives and orientations were utilised in approaches to data analysis and renderings from the data thereby opening up the analysis of these complex phenomena to different lines of interrogation questions and analytical approaches It elaborates more fully understandings about the processes of adults learning and development across their lifespan of adulthood referred to as working life and what factors and contributions supported that learning This book also attempts to reconcile a coherent view about development across the work lifespan and how that can be supported by education provisions workplaces communities and by the adults themselves School-to-work Transition Christina Mathewson Salerno, 1993 Labor Market Transitions of Young Women Over the Early Life Course Hanam S. Phang, 1994

Work Life, Work Environment and Work Safety in Transition Annette Thörnquist, 2001 Counseling Adults in Transition Nancy K. Schlossberg, Elinor B. Waters, Jane Goodman, 1995 In this updated edition of a highly successful text the authors expand on their transition model which offers effective adult counseling through an integration of empirical knowledge and theory with practice The authors combine an understanding of adult development with practical strategies for counseling clients in personal and professional transition and provide a framework for individual group and work settings The final chapter goes beyond intervention to discuss issues such as consulting and advocacy Counselors counselor educators counselors in training and other mental health professionals will find this volume an essential addition to their library of resources BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

including developmental sociological and social psychological In addition a number of the essays have implications for policy making in the areas of education and employment The contributors to this volume explore the experiences of rural youth in Nova Scotia blacks in Toronto and high school students in Vancouver They suggest new approaches to researching native communities and the lives of female adolescents

Work/Family Conflicts Bradley K. Googins, 1991 Work Family Conflicts describes a social earthquake which without our knowledge is changing the fiber of our lives Conflicts inherent to complex work family issues are being felt within and among three sectors the family the corporation and society at large These conflicts deny easy solutions and are aggravated as they bump up against social economic and cultural realities According to Bradley Googins all three sectors must ultimately appreciate their roles in the conflicts and accept some responsibility for resolving them He focuses on the roles played by society and families and stresses the need to ignore simplistic solutions He looks instead toward creative understandings new partnerships and the courage to confront dysfunctional structures attitudes and social arrangements The ultimate goal is healthy and productive families and workplaces Googins divides his volume into ten chapters His first chapter provides an overview reflecting the magnitude of the issues He then outlines a framework examining issues at four levels individuals families corporations and governments Salient changes conflicts and impacts are discussed at each level Chapter three analyzes the development of work family relationships over several centuries Googins presents the findings of the Boston University Balancing Job and Homelife Study in chapter four This study provides his research base Viewing work family conflicts from the perspective of today s families chapter five looks at family members while chapter six and seven cover childcare and elder dependent care Chapter eight identifies society s megaconflicts chapter nine outlines the types of
