Martin Luther King Jr studies is leading to a new appreciation of his thought and its meaningfulness for the emergence and shaping of the twenty first century world This volume brings together an impressive array of scholars from various backgrounds and disciplines to explore the global significance of King then now and in the future Employing King s metaphor of the great world house the major focus is on King s appraisal of the global human struggle in the 1950s and 1960s his relevance for today s world and how future generations might constructively apply or appropriate his key ideas and values in addressing racism poverty and economic injustice militarism sexism homophobia the environmental crisis globalization and other challenges confronting humanity today The contributors treat King in context and beyond context taking seriously the historical King while also exploring how his name activities contributions and legacy are still associated with a globalized
