Worship The Wind:

Worship the Wind Cynthia Vannoy-Rhoades, 2011-05-01 Nature has many lessons We all need to reconnect with the natural world and let nature refresh our souls This book can be a place to start on the journey to reconnect with the natural world reconnect with our natural selves No matter how much there is to do we have to learn that we don't have to do it right now Most things are not a matter of life or death Learn to relax with nature and you will find yourself feeling calmer and more able to face the world and more able to face life Some of us are lucky we live near the ocean or near a mountain range where we can drive only a short distance and find ourselves able to walk barefoot in the sand with the ocean lapping at our feet or stroll through a field of wildflowers taking in the beauty of the mountains nearby But nature is all around us Even in the middle of a concrete jungle cities have found it beneficial to add a little bit of nature A tree here a green park there In some places there are even people trying to get us to turn off the city lights so we can once again see the stars Even this book Worship The Wind in its small way reconnects us to nature Through original poems and glorious photos one can get a glimpse of the natural world Come to nature and let it refresh and restore your soul
