Woven Works:

Women's Work Ferren Gipson, 2022-07-12 A celebration of art traditionally devalued as too domestic or feminine to be taken seriously and the innovative brilliant artists reclaiming the idea of women's work

Design in Motion Laura A. Frahm, 2022-07-19 The first comprehensive history in English of film at the Bauhaus exploring practices that experimented with film as an adaptable elastic polymedium

With Design in Motion Laura Frahm proposes an alternate history of the Bauhaus one in which visual media and film in particular are crucial to the Bauhaus's visionary pursuit of integrating art and technology

In the first comprehensive examination in English of film at the Bauhaus Frahm shows that experimentation with film spanned a range of Bauhaus practices from textiles and typography to stage and exhibition design

Indeed Bauhausler deployed film as an adaptable elastic polymedium malleable in shape and form unfolding and refracting into multiple material aesthetic and philosophical directions

Frahm shows how the encounter with film imbued the Bauhaus of the 1920s and early 1930s with a flexible notion of design infusing painting with temporal concepts sculptures with moving forms photographs with sequential aesthetics architectural designs with a choreography of movement

Frahm considers among other things student works that explored light and the transparent features of celluloid and cellophane weaving practices that incorporate cellophane experimental films social documentaries and critical reportage by Bauhaus women and the proliferation of film strips in posters book covers and other typographic work

Viewing the Bauhaus's engagement with film through a media theoretic lens Frahm shows how film became a medium for design in motion

Movement and process rather than stability and fixity become the defining characteristics of Bauhaus educational aesthetic and philosophical ethos

Textiles and Textile Imagery in Early Medieval English Literature Maren Clegg Hyer, 2025-04-22

Identifies and analyses a wide range of textile metaphors and imagery from peace weaving in Beowulf to word crafting in Elene

Textile metaphors or metaphors involving the process and product of cloth making occur widely in literary traditions around the world

The same phenomenon holds true among the peoples of early medieval England

As close observers of a long and culturally significant textile tradition pre Conquest English writers drew upon their close familiarity with spinning and weaving to create a wide range of metaphorical textile images in both Old English and Anglo Latin literature

This book examines early medieval English textile imagery in close detail situating it within its cultural and material contexts and addressing the ways in which lived experience informed these metaphors whether inherited invented or both imagery linked to themes of creation peace death magic and fate in a comprehensive variety of texts including Beowulf and Elene Anglo Latin letters and riddles the Exeter Book riddles prognostics penitentials hagiographic and homiletic texts medical collections and glosses Overall it demonstrates how an understanding of this important body of textile metaphors alters and shapes the ways in which we read the literature of this period Architect ,1876 Mechanical Handling and Works Equipment ,1919 Annual Report of the Factory Inspector of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the Year ... Pennsylvania.
