Write on David Lodge, 1986 Novelist critic lecturer reviewer man about conferences David Lodge as both analyst and practitioner is one of our foremost experts in the forms of fiction He is also an uncommonly sympathetic and informed observer of the passing scene and his penetrating vision is set in a consistently ironic frame David Lodge's humour can be a devastating weapon but it is continually engaging because as often as not the sniper's sights are trained on the author himself and on the curiously mobile cosmopolitan yet specialist world he inhabits The essays and reviews collected in this volume are selected from the occasional writings over a span of twenty years and are all prompted by an impulse or an invitation to write on some specific topic a book a film an anniversary a trip abroad They also reflect the drive of the professional to keep writing to keep the muscles of composition exercised The pieces collected here are designed for a wide audience and most focus in more or less direct ways on Lodge's own work as a novelist Enthusiasts will take especial pleasure in discovering sources for episodes from his novels in tracing how reality mutates into fiction or how on occasion the process works the other way round
