An African Adventure Isaac Frederick Marcossou, 2023-04-30 An African Adventure is a non-fiction book by Isaac Frederick Marcossou published in 1921. The book recounts the author's travels throughout Africa, including his experiences with native tribes, big game hunting, and colonial administration. Marcossou describes his encounters with lions, elephants, and other animals, as well as his interactions with African leaders and European settlers. He also provides historical context and political analysis of the region during the early 20th century. The book is both an adventure story and a reflection on the complex and often fraught relationships between colonial powers and indigenous peoples.

The African Adventure Timothy Severin, 1973-01-01 The African Adventure Timothy Severin, 1973 African Adventure Willard Price, 2013 Hal and Roger Hunt are both the hunters and the hunted in this spellbinding tale of adventure that leads them on the trail of a man-eating leopard and also puts them in the sights of a band of vicious killers known as the Leopard Society. African Adventure Stories John Alden Loring, 1914 The African Adventure Ronald A. Harvie, 2011 African Adventure and Adventurers George Tiffany Day, 1880 Between Man and Beast Monte Reel, 2013-03-12 In 1856 Paul Du Chaillu ventured into the African jungle in search of a mythic beast, the gorilla. After wild encounters with vicious cannibals, deadly snakes, and tribal kings, Du Chaillu emerged with 20 preserved gorilla skins, two of which were stuffed and brought on tour and walked smack dab into the biggest scientific debate of the time: Darwin's theory of evolution. Quickly, Du Chaillu's trophies went from objects of wonder to key pieces in an all-out intellectual war. With a wide range of characters, including Abraham Lincoln, Arthur Conan Doyle, P. T. Barnum, Thackeray, and of course Charles Darwin, this is a one-of-a-kind book about a singular moment in history.

African Adventure Julia Allen, Fleur Iggulden, 2013-08-01 It's my job to look at people and to think carefully about them. I was sure there was something strange about this man. His hair, nobody has their hair cut quite like that now. And that suit, it was quite clean, quite new, but the trousers and the jacket were different somehow. Where had I seen a suit like that before? There has been a car crash on an empty road and a driver who thinks he has killed a man. Sue Fraser is a police officer. She has to investigate the accident. First she must find the strange hitchhiker, the man she gave a lift to on the day the accident happened. Level 4, 1, 250 headwords. Story word count: 6,302 words. Currently comprising 16 titles across four stages from beginner to upper intermediate, the series is carefully graded lexically and structurally to encourage young adults to read for pleasure and at speed. The stories are all first and foremost, just that: stories from ELT authors well known for their ability to craft original and engaging narratives to entertain and educate. Each reader contains striking and contemporary, full-colour illustrations and photos, resource pages of well-scaffolded exercises, and an easy-to-use glossary. Titles in Levels 1 and 2 are 32 pages each, while titles in Levels 3 and 4 are 40 pages each.
