Putnam Waldo,2015-07-16 Excerpt from The Life and Character of Stephen Decatur Late Commodore and Post Captain in the Navy of the United States and Navy Commissioner Interspersed With Brief Notices of the Origin Progress and Achievements of the American Navy The rapid sale Edition of this Volume was the inducement for publishing the present very large Edition The writer is of course precluded from saying any thing of the merits of the work in regard to the manner in which it is executed but he will certainly escape the imputation of vanity when he assures the candid reader that in point of fact it has been pronounced accurate by those who were best calculated to judge of its accuracy The Volume contains the first minute biography of any of the distinguished heroes who commenced their naval profession in the American School in the Mediterranean Sea The writer began prosecuted and ended the memoir with a solicitude which was sensibly felt by himself but which he could not possibly impart to the readers of this rapidly written volume The author since the publication of the first Edition has enjoyed the pleasure of interviews with distinguished officers of the navy who have condescended to peruse it and whose gentlemanlike civility has pronounced it correct Their opinion gives a value to the Volume which the writer certainly did not attach to it himself The Publisher of the present Edition has spared no pains or expense to add to the little value the work originally possessed About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
