The Restoration Economy Storm Cunningham,2002-11-02 The Restoration Economy reveals the previously undocumented trillion dollar global industries that are restoring our natural and manmade environments Restorative development is rapidly overtaking new development because we are running out of things to develop Most natural areas are already either farmed or degraded and cities have built all the way to their borders However there is no lack of things to redevelop and restore Storm Cunningham surveys the wide range of restoration industries and points out the connections among them He shows for example how the restoration of a river ecosystem can have a major impact on the commercial success of a redeveloped historic urban waterfront Written for a broad range of audiences The Restoration Economy is an entertaining blend of business science and economics that details exciting new business and investment opportunities in this dynamic economic sector

Divergent Paths of the Restoration Steven L. Shields,2021-08-30 When Joseph Smith founded the Church of Christ in 1830 he declared it to be God s restoration of true Christianity the Kingdom of God on earth Although he foresaw opposition to such bold claims he could not fathom that time and unforeseen circumstances would help to spawn hundreds of off shoots and competing denominations all claiming their origins in a movement born and sustained originally by Smith and Sidney Rigdon Many of these groups have endured and boast multiple congregations of believers in many countries others came and went quickly and have long since been forgotten Some have survived but have only appealed to a handful of believers Steven L Shields has for decades chronicled the various origins and paths of all known Restoration movements This fifth edition of his encyclopedic study offered as an ebook includes recent groups born as internet communities That so many groups and individuals have been unsatisfied with the more mainstream Mormon churches yet cling to tenets of the Smith Rigdon movement speaks to the strengths of the restoration concept and the naive view that one denomination can successfully meet all the needs of believers

The Restoration, 2004. Each of us is a child of God. He is our Heavenly Father who loves us and wants us to return to live with Him. We can do this by living the gospel of Jesus Christ. Throughout time, God has repeatedly reached out in love to His children by revealing this gospel to prophets such as Adam, Noah, Abraham, and Moses. However, people repeatedly chose to reject the prophets and their teachings. Two thousand years ago, God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to atone for the sins of the world and to overcome death. Jesus also taught His gospel, chose Apostles, and established His Church. He gave His Apostles Priesthood authority to perform ordinances and directed them to take His gospel into all the world. But just as the prophets were rejected in previous ages, the people rejected and killed His Apostles. As a result, priesthood authority was taken from the earth. Because of God's love for His children, He has reached out to us just as He has done in the past. This DVD presents the glorious beginning of the restoration of the gospel of Jesus Christ in our time through the Prophet Joseph Smith. It confirms that our Heavenly Father heard a humble prayer and through Joseph restored the fulness of the gospel of Jesus Christ once again upon the earth.
