Representations of Blackness and the Performance of Identities Jean Rahier, 1999-05-30 The essays gathered in this volume deal with representations of blackness and the performance of black identities in various historically determined societal contexts of the Americas Benin and Spain The book is grounded on the premise that representations constitute in part the world in which we live An important aspect of the struggles of dominated people consists in more or less overtly challenging manipulating combatting negating and sometimes inverting representations of themselves reproduced in the dominant discourse of their national society The contributors approach various forms of blackness within the fluctuation of political economic and social processes embedded in particular time space contexts which are constituted within local regional national and transnational dimensions Identities whatever they may be cannot be defined once and for all in fixed or essentialist terms as if they were unchanging or frozen in time and space If as this book proposes identities are fluid it is because they are constantly enacted and reenacted performed anew within specific situations and within changing socioeconomic and political contexts that provide sites for their negotiations and renegotiations definitions and redefinitions Thus the book approaches black identities as performances Black
