Toni Morrison Playing With Difference:

Toni Morrison Lucille P. Fultz, 2003 In this innovative study Lucille P Fultz explores Toni Morrison s rich body of work uncovering the interplay between differences love and hate masculinity and femininity black and white past and present wealth and poverty that lie at the heart of these vibrant and complex narratives Much has already been made of Morrison s treatment of race but Playing with Difference demonstrates that throughout her work Morrison creates a sophisticated matrix of difference layering a multitude of other distinctions onto the racial one and observing how these potencies of difference play themselves out in her characters Fultz s holistic thematic approach to her subject enables her to move deftly among the novels and stories building a nuanced understanding of how markers of difference influence Morrison s narrative decisions She examines Morrison s facility with imagery and wordplay and discusses the ways in which Morrison contends with the expectations of gender and race that have stiffened into traditions or worse prejudices Discussing the issues that unite and divide characters Fultz views each novel from The Bluest Eye 1970 to Paradise 1998 along with stories such as Recitatif as parts of an elaborate and dynamic whole

Playing in the Dark Toni Morrison, 2007-07-24 An immensely persuasive work of literary criticism that opens a new chapter in the American dialogue on race and promises to change the way we read American literature from the acclaimed Nobel Prize winner Morrison shows how much the themes of freedom and individualism manhood and innocence depended on the existence of a black population that was manifestly unfree and that came to serve white authors as embodiments of their own fears and desires According to the Chicago Tribune Morrison reimagines and remaps the possibility of America Her brilliant discussions of the Africanist presence in the fiction of Poe Melville Cather and Hemingway leads to a dramatic reappraisal of the essential characteristics of our literary tradition Written with the artistic vision that has earned the Nobel Prize winning author a pre eminent place in modern letters Playing in the Dark is an invaluable read for avid Morrison admirers as well as students critics and scholars of American literature

The African American Male, Writing, and Difference W. Lawrence Hogue, 2012-02-01 In this wide ranging analysis W Lawrence Hogue argues that African American life and history is more diverse than even African American critics generally acknowledge Focusing on literary representations of African American males in particular Hogue examines works by James Weldon Johnson William Melvin Kelley Charles Wright Nathan Heard Clarence Major James Earl Hardy and Don Belton to see how they portray middle class Christian subaltern voodoo urban jazz blues postmodern and gay African American cultures Hogue shows that this polycentric perspective can move beyond a racial uplift approach to African American literature and history and help paint a clearer picture of the rich diversity of African American life and culture

Worlds of Difference Peter Pericles Trifonas, 2015-12-22 The varying interests of competing minority groups often part company with regard to how to achieve an equitable community Worlds of Difference rethinks the traditional interpretation of the principle of educational equity in light of this difficulty Theorists and educational practitioners influenced by many disparate schools of thought reflect upon the possibilities of a curriculum of difference in relation to questions of language culture and media at the forefront of global education issues today Collectively the authors argue that education in theory and practice must reawaken an ethical consciousness that affirms the negative values of difference but still recognizes the uniqueness and particularity of each group

Gender and Jewish Difference from Paul to Shakespeare Lisa Lampert, 2013-04-09 Although representations of medieval Christians and Christianity are rarely subject to the same scholarly scrutiny as those of Jews and Judaism the Christian is as constructed a term category and identity as the Jew Medieval Christian authors created complex notions of Christian identity through strategic use of representations of Others idealized Jewish patriarchs or demonized contemporary Jews Woman represented as either virgin or whore In Western thought the Christian was figured as spiritual and masculine defined in opposition to the carnal feminine and Jewish Women and Jews are not simply the Other for the Christian exegetical tradition however they also represent sources of origin as one cannot conceive of men without women or of Christianity without Judaism The bifurcated representations of Woman and Jew found in the literature of the Middle Ages and beyond reflect the uneasy figurations of women and Jews as both insiders and outsiders to Christian society Gender and Jewish Difference from Paul to Shakespeare provides the first extended examination of the linkages of gender and Jewish difference in late medieval and early modern English literature Focusing on representations of Jews and women in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales selections from medieval drama and Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice Lampert explores the ways in which medieval and early modern authors used strategies of opposition to and identification with figures of Jews and women to create individual and collective Christian identities This book shows not only how these questions are interrelated in the texts of medieval and early modern England but how they reveal the distinct yet similarly paradoxical places held by Woman and Jew within a longer tradition of Western thought that extends to the present day

Raphael-Hernandez,2008 This work offers a connection between the concrete utopian theory of hope by the Gennan Jewish philosopher Ernst Bloch and the literary productions of contemporary African American women writers The study argues that these literary texts should be read as concrete utopias outlined in Bloch s major work The Principle of Hope Bloch argues that when people become consciously aware of the dialectical tendencies in concrete utopias will they recognize the possibilities first for their own personal empowerment and then for their communities As a result of their conscious awareness readers will be able to perceive the visions of the texts and will begin to actively dream of becoming agents for change themselves The study claims that most texts by contemporary African American women writers such as Alice Walker Toni Cade Bambara Gloria Naylor Ntozake Shange Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Sherley Anne Williams Bebe Moore Campbell and Terry McMillan provide concrete utopian visions An application of Bloch s theory to these writers enriches a reading of their texts and demonstrates that art is the medium that will remind people of their constant never ending responsibility for personal agency Redefining Difference Theresa Marie Tensuan,2002 Toni Morrison Solomon Ogbede Iyasere,Marla W.
