The Reading Of Time:

  Reading Time in the Long Poem Tess Somervell,2022-10-19 Reading Time tells the story of the long poem in the long eighteenth century as it navigated between narrative and description progress and digression and time and space The long poem emerged between 1660 and 1850 as a medium in which poets could shape and reshape time Analysing Milton s Paradise Lost Thomson s The Seasons and Wordsworth s The Prelude this study reveals how these poets used both the content and form of their long poems to intervene in contemporary debates about the temporalities of free will nature and identity Reading Time argues that they use the figure of the prospect the extended landscape to imagine time as a space onto which different causal configurations could be mapped In turn readers have approached these poems as both temporal and spatial forms as linear processes and as static structures demonstrating how the long poem can shape a reader s own experience of time   An International Approach to Developing Early Career Researchers Stephen Gorard,Nadia Siddiqui,2024-05-14 This edited volume illustrates the idea of a successful research capacity model critically addressing preconceived notions of early career research projects impact and drawing together insights and implications around the encouragement of newer researchers to conduct useful robust studies with real world effect Centring on research undertaken at the UK Durham University Evidence Centre the volume features contributions from authors based at universities in the US China India and Pakistan The book discusses 15 substantial studies which explore themes such as children s wider outcomes in school disadvantage in education and the supply of professionals for the teaching workforce Novel in approach and highly interdisciplinary in nature the book showcases a broad range of experience and knowledge sharing from experienced researchers and policymakers to new academic staff current doctoral students and masters students conducting ambitious large scale projects thereby giving voice to those just starting out in their career Illustrating powerful studies that are feasible for students and beginners with limited or no resources this book will appeal to new researchers scholars and academics involved in the fields of educational research and research methods continuing professional development and education policy more broadly   Journals of the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada Canada.
