The Rendezvous:

The Rendezvous Justine Levy, 1999-03-15 Raised by parents who came of age in the sixties and went on to achieve worldwide fame Louise has survived their celebrity their turbulent marriage and the divorce that left her in the care of her devoted father and on the periphery of her mother's chaotic life Now eighteen Louise waits for her long absent mother in a cafe Carefully balancing anticipation with the fear that her mother will once again disappoint her she digs deep into a store of memories Her recollections of childhood incidents bring her face to face with the reasons behind her mother's self destructive behavior and clarify her own complicated feelings for a deeply flawed parent Writing with wry humor and sometimes savage irony Levy captures the essence of a love at once profoundly troubled and indestructible Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved
