Chinese International Students in the U.S. Yalun Zhou, Michael Wei, 2020-12-21 This book marks a departure from traditional assumptions concerning the deficiencies of Chinese international students in terms of learning and adapting. It employs a phenomenological narrative inquiry and a small culture approach to investigate the evolved fluid experience of pursuing a graduate degree in the U.S. at Blue Fountain University a pseudonym for a mid western university. Adopting an interdisciplinary perspective this book addresses two fundamental questions: What study abroad is and what study abroad counts. The sociocultural dimensions that shape the cross border degree seeking endeavors inform stakeholders what works for Chinese international students successful pursuits as EFL learners and ESL users and what could be improved. This book shares thoughts on the implications and impact of educational contexts to stakeholders at normal and dynamic contexts interrupted by global pandemic outbreak. It contributes to the understanding of the internationalization of the host institute and the EFL education reform efforts policy making teacher education and classroom practice in China and in Asia at large.
