wonderful attributes that a woman had to offer within a home The book is written by a woman on women in the home and therefore their influence on the house as a whole With chapter titles like The House as a workshop 1 The housewife Home Cooking Art Home Domestic Ethics and The Lady of the House the reader is led to believe that the theme of the book is the positive influence that a woman has at home In fact the book was written to confuse The notion of wonderful influence of the woman disappears in the final chapters of the book before the critical force of the author After reading the book to the end one feels as if Gilman saw the women of his time as weak and protected and men as strong and above and after work women were no longer family center
