Tiny Tears:

Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall,2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicana family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book s discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicana family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships

Josephine and I Cush Jumbo,2013-12-04 Josephine Baker captivating performer political activist and international icon who lived from 1906 to 1975 From the ragtime rhythms of St Louis and the intoxicating sounds of 1920s Paris to present day London Josephine and I intertwines the story of a modern day girl with that of one of the greatest yet largely forgotten stars of the twentieth century Cush Jumbo stars in the premiere of her debut play which centres on the legendary American entertainer and her impact on a contemporary young woman Live music combines with dance to bring to life the contemporary legacy of a woman Ernest Hemingway described as the most sensational woman anyone ever saw and ever will

Of Women Borne Cynthia R. Wallace,2016-03-08 The literature of Adrienne Rich Toni Morrison Ana Castillo and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie teaches a risky self giving way of reading and being that brings home the dangers and the possibilities of suffering as an ethical good Working the thought of feminist theologians and philosophers into an analysis of these women s writings Cynthia R Wallace crafts a literary ethics attentive to the paradoxes of critique and re vision universality and particularity and reads in suffering a redemptive or redeemable reality Wallace s approach recognizes the generative interplay between ethical form and content in literature which helps isolate more distinctly the gendered and religious echoes of suffering and sacrifice in Western culture By refracting these resonances through the work of feminists and theologians of color her book also shows the value of broad ranging ethical explorations into literature with their power to redefine theories of reading and the nature of our responsibility to art and each other

The Greatest of Marlys Lynda Barry,2021-04-22 Welcome to the world of Marlys and Maybonne Lynda Barry s comics were my YA before YA really even existed She s been writing teen stories with an incredibly clear voice since the early 80s The Greatest Of Marlys is raw ugly hilarious and poignant Raina Telgemeier Smile the desire to be popular is unending bullies are unrepentant and parents make few appearances The Greatest Of Marlys spotlights Barry s masterful skill of chronicling childhood through adolescence in all of its wonder awkwardness humor and pain What Daddy Did Donna Ford,2008-09-04 In this haunting and frank account Donna Ford bestselling author of The Step Child returns to the horrific abuse she suffered at the hands of her stepmother As a tiny girl of five and for six long years Donna was physically mentally and sexually abused She was starved beaten and loaned out to neighbours who raped and molested her and throughout her father stood by and did nothing When her stepmother finally left the family home Donna dreamed of a normal childhood in which she would be taken care of by the man who had up until this point failed her But it was not to be By telling the whole story of her Edinburgh childhood Donna tries to understand why the man who should have loved her the most her own father was the one who deceived her the most by continuing to allow men to abuse her Instead of finding a future of love and happiness Donna was once again thrust into a living nightmare of exploitation and betrayal by those who should have wrapped her up in their love While this is a true story of appalling child abuse it is also a tale of how exhilaration tenderness and self development can flourish despite childhood horrors We take a journey with Donna to discover the woman she has become a devoted mother of three and a talented artist and writer The Family Friend ,1886 Identity in Latin American and Latina Literature Kathryn Quinn-Sánchez,2014-12-18 This study demonstrates the ways that Latina authors contest how power and space exploit women while simultaneously subverting the Nation State through reimagining a counter space where new definitions of the self lie beyond Power s reach Moreover this book delves into how both Power and Space collude to uphold the out of date sexist racist and classist societal norms that Eurocentrism and history continue to cleave to as the defining qualities of the nation and its citizens With the proliferation of Latin literature within the United States an ideological readjustment is taking place whereby several late twentieth and early twenty first century authors contest the State s role in defining its citizens by exposing the unjust role that Space and Power play With this in mind the author examines several literary versions of identity to explore how certain authors reject and subvert the social mores against which present day citizens are measured especially within government or State institutions but also within families and neighborhoods The literary works that are analyzed cover a period of twenty five years ending in 2010 Several of these texts rewrite the national allegory from the point of view of the marginalized while others demonstrate how an individual successfully renegotiates her identity gender social class or ethnicity from being a disadvantage to being an identity marker to celebrate The authors defy the place that women are still relegated to by representing several characters who consciously decide that it is time to battle the forces that would keep them powerless in the public arena Above all these texts are anti Power the protagonists refuse to accept the societal forces which constantly barrage them defining them as worthless These authors and their characters challenge everything that historically has kept women relegated to a space of weakness The international library of famous literature Richard Garnett,1899 The
