Tamarind Mem Anita Rau Badami, 1996 Tamarind Woman Anita Rau Badami, 2004-03-02 Growing up in India Kamini often found herself struggling to be noticed noticed by her beloved storytelling father whose position as a railway officer took him away from home for long stretches of time and noticed by her distant distracted mother Saroja whose biting remarks earned her the nickname Tamarind Woman and whose frequent disappearances while her husband was away led to whispers of dalliances and affairs Now Kamini is grown living in Canada in a sort of self imposed exile from her eccentric family and all the turmoil they represent After her father s death her mother embarks upon a solo journey across India by train because what is the use of a lifetime railway pass if she doesn t use it The trip brings the past rushing back for Saroja and Kamini as both are forced to confront their dreams disappointments and long guarded secrets Tamarind Woman Anita Rau Badami, 2002 Kamini has recently moved from India to Canada Plunged into the past by acrimonious telephone calls and odd postcards from her mother she tries to make sense of the eccentric family she has left behind Why was her Mother as bitter as a tamarind with her lot in life Why did she seem to love Roopa best rubbing almond oil on her skin at bath time and never scolding her for getting her sums wrong And where did she disappear to while Dadda was away on business leaving her daughters in the care of a superstitious old ayah A wise and affectionate portrait of two generations of women in an Indian family Tamarind Woman is a beautifully evocative novel that explores the mutability of memory and unravels the deep ties of love and resentment that bind mothers and daughters everywhere The Fiction of South Asians in North America and the Caribbean Mitali P. Wong, Zia Hasan, 2010-06-28 This study establishes connections between the themes and methodologies of writers within the South Asian diaspora in the New World and serves both serious analysts as well as beginning readers of South Asian fiction It is an impartial study that analyzes the stylistic excellence of South Asian fiction and the clearly emergent motifs of the writers recognizing the value of the interplay of cultural differences and the need for resolution of those differences The book begins with a discussion of the works of Indo Caribbean novelists Samuel Selvon and V S Naipaul author of A House for Mr Biswas and The Enigma of Arrival thereby establishing parallels between the immigration patterns of the South Asian diaspora who first emigrated to the Caribbean long before significant numbers of South Asians came to the United States Next the fiction of Ruth Praver Jhabvala Heat and Dust the non fictional narratives of Ved Mehta Face to Face and the satire and social criticism of Bharati Mukherjee Wife and Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Sister of My Heart are discussed New literary voices such as those of Bapsi Sidhwa An American Brat Pulitzer Prize winner Jhumpa Lahiri whose characters plots and themes deal with universal human experiences Akhil Sharma Manil Suri and Samrat Upadhyay are studied for the new directions and new methods they offer A sub genre of young adult fiction is discovered in the novels of Dhan Gopal Mukerji such as in his Gay Neck The Story of a Pigeon and more recently in the works of Mitali Perkins and Indi Rana Recent expatriate novelists from South Asia such as Anita Desai Amitav Chosh Vikram Chandra and the American

editions of Vikram Seth's novels are appraised together with contemporary Indo Canadian novelists and Indo Caribbean novelists resident in Canada SHATTERED BORDERS, SHARED STORIES: Identity And Memory In Divakaruni And Badami's Diasporic Women DR.PALLAVI,2025-09-11 A psychological and cultural struggle when individuals or communities feel uncertain about who they are It often arises in contexts of migration exile colonization or generational change In literature Identity crisis appear as conflicts between tradition vs modernity homeland vs host land or personal vs collective self Is Canada Postcolonial? Laura Moss,2003-05-26 How can postcolonialism be applied to Canadian literature In all that has been written about postcolonialism surprisingly little has specifically addressed the position of Canada Canadian literature or Canadian culture Postcolonialism is a theory that has gained credence throughout the world it is be productive to ask if and how we as Canadians participate in postcolonial debates It is also vital to examine the ways in which Canada and Canadian culture fit into global discussions as our culture reflects how we interact with our neighbours allies and adversaries This collection wrestles with the problems of situating Canadian literature in the ongoing debates about culture identity and globalization and of applying the slippery term of postcolonialism to Canadian literature The topics range in focus from discussions of specific literary works to general theoretical contemplations The twenty three articles in this collection grapple with the recurrent issues of postcolonialism including hybridity collaboration marginality power resistance and historical revisionism from the vantage point of those working within Canada as writers and critics While some seek to confirm the legitimacy of including Canadian literature in the discussions of postcolonialism others challenge this very notion
