Tangled Memories:

Tangled Memories Marita Sturken, 1997-02-28 On American cultural memory      Tangled Memories Marita Sturken, 1997-02-28 Analyzing the ways U S culture has been formed and transformed in the 80s and 90s by its response to the Vietnam War and the AIDS epidemic Marita Sturken argues that each has disrupted our conventional notions of community nation consensus and American culture She examines the relationship of camera images to the production of cultural memory the mixing of fantasy and reenactment in memory the role of trauma and survivors in creating cultural comfort and how discourses of healing can smooth over the tensions of political events Sturken s discussion encompasses a brilliant comparison of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the AIDS Quilt her profound reading of the Memorial as a national wailing wall one whose emphasis on the veterans and war dead has allowed the discourse of heroes sacrifice and honor to resurface at the same time that it is an implicit condemnation of war is particularly compelling The book also includes discussions of the Kennedy assassination the Persian Gulf War the Challenger explosion and the Rodney King beating While debunking the image of the United States as a culture of amnesia Sturken also shows how remembering itself is a form of forgetting and how exclusion is a vital part of memory formation      Zapruder Øyvind Vågnes, 2012-08-24 Winner Peter C Rollins Book Award 2012 As the fiftieth anniversary of the Kennedy assassination approaches the traumatic aspects of the tragedy continue to haunt our perceptions of the 1960s One reason for this lies in the home movie of the incident filmed by Abraham Zapruder a bystander who became one of the twentieth century s most important accidental documentarians The first book devoted exclusively to the topic Zapruder traces the journey of the film and its effect on the world s collective imagination Providing insightful perspective as an observer of American culture Norwegian media studies scholar yvind V gnes begins by analyzing three narratives that are projections of Zapruder s images performance group Ant Farm s video The Eternal Frame Don DeLillo s novel Underworld and an episode from Seinfeld Subsequent topics he investigates include Dealey Plaza s Sixth Floor Museum Zoran Naskovski s installation Death in Dallas assassin video games and other artifacts of the ways in which the footage has made a lasting impact on popular culture and the historical imagination V gnes also explores the role of other accidental documentarians such as those who captured scenes of 9 11 Zapruder s footage has never yielded a conclusive account of what happened in Dealey Plaza Zapruder thoroughly examines both this historical enigma and its indelible afterimages in our collective imagination      Trauma and the Memory of Politics Jenny Edkins, 2003-07-31 In this interesting study Jenny Edkins explores how we remember traumatic events such as wars famines genocides and terrorism and questions the assumed role of commemorations as simply reinforcing state and nationhood Taking examples from the World Wars Vietnam the Holocaust Kosovo and September 11th Edkins offers a thorough discussion of practices of memory such as memorials museums remembrance ceremonies the diagnosis of post traumatic stress and the act of bearing witness She examines the implications of these commemorations in terms of language political power sovereignty and nationalism She argues that some forms of remembering do not ignore the horror of what happened but rather use memory to promote change and to challenge the political systems that produced the violence of wars and genocides in the first place This wide ranging study embraces literature history politics and international relations and makes a significant contribution to the study of memory Memory and popular film Paul Grainge,2018-07-30 One of the first books to put memory at the centre of analysis when exploring the relationship between film culture and the past Provides a sustained interdisciplinary perspective on memory and film from early cinema to the present drawing from film studies American studies and cultural studies Adopts a resolutely cultural perspective and unlike psychoanalytic or formalist approaches to memory explores questions of culture power and identity Contributes to the growing debate about the status and function of the past in cultural life and discourse discussing issues of memory in film and of film as memory Considers such well known films as Forrest Gump Pleasantville and Jackie Brown An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence Filipino American Transnational Activism ,2019-12-09 Read an interview with Robyn Rodriguez Filipino American Transnational Activism Diasporic Politics among the Second Generation offers an account of how Filipinos born or raised in the United States often defy the multiple assimilationist agendas that attempt to shape their understandings of themselves Despite conditions that might lead them to reject any kind of relationship to the Philippines in favor of a deep rootedness in the United States many forge linkages to the homeland and are actively engaged in activism and social movements transnationally Though it may well be true that most Filipino Americans have an ambivalent relationship to the Philippines many of the chapters of this book show that other possibilities for belonging and imaginaries of home are being crafted and pursued The Song George Putnam Upton,1915

Committed to Memory Oren Baruch Stier,2003 How is contemporary public consciousness of the Holocaust shaped and communicated How is commitment to its memory expressed and engendered This text offers a close and critical analysis of a range of cultural activities that mediate the Holocaust for a public increasingly distant from the events of World War II Oren Baruch Stier argues that the manner in which those events are committed to memory coupled with the fervent dedication to memory exhibited by many people and institutions produces distinct memorial mediations of the Shoah The Queen's
