would have made him prominent in whatever pursuit or profession he engaged His lot was cast on the extreme western frontier where when but a youth he earned the respect of the tough and frequently lawless men with whom he came in contact Integrity bravery loyalty to friends marvelous quickness in making right decisions in crisis of danger consummate knowledge of woodcraft a leadership as skilful as it was daring all these were distinguishing traits in the composition of Carson and were the foundations of the broader fame which he acquired as the friend and invaluable counselor of Fremont the Pathfinder in his expeditions across the Rocky Mountains Father Kit as he came to be known among the Indians risked his life scores of times for those who needed but had no special claim upon his services The red men were quick to learn that he always spoke with a single tongue and that he was their unselfish friend He went among his hostiles when no one of his race dare follow him he averted more than one outbreak he secured that which is impossible to secure justice for the Indian and his work from the time when a mere boy he left his native Kentucky was always well done His memory will forever remain fragrant with those who appreciate true manhood and an unswerving devotion to the good of those among whom he lived and died
