Tibet A Reality:

Tibet, a Reality M. G. Chitkara, 1994 Chiefly political situation of Tibet after 1951 Illusion and Reality Jamyang Norbu, 1989 Reimagining Tibet Koushik Goswami, 2022-12-28 This book examines how territorial civilisational and cultural location determines one's gaze and attitude while representing a contested space like Tibet It analyses representations of Tibet in three novels James Hilton's Lost Horizon 1933 Jamyang Norbu's The Mandala of Sherlock Holmes 1999 and Kaushik Barua's Windhorse 2013 It shows how these novels project different types of gaze insider outsider and insider outsider and explores them within the context of some contemporary Tibetan activist writers The book also looks at Tibetan exilic writings and virtual activities of the Tibetan activists whose programmes and rhetoric counter the age old image of the Tibetans as passive and non violent people It shows how activists utilise social networking as an effective platform to counter imperialist occupation of Tibet by China It includes interviews of eight Anglophone Tibetan writers Tenzin Tsundue Thubten Samphel Tsering Namgyal Khortsa Tsering Wangmo Dhompa Jamyang Norbu Tenzin Dickie Bhuchung D Sonam and an Indian writer who has written on Tibet Kaushik Barua Interdisciplinary accessible and engaging this book presents one of the first studies on how Tibet has been represented in English fiction It will be of interest to scholars and researchers of literature media and cultural studies politics history and China studies Chinese Propaganda on Tibet Warren W. Smith Jr., 2023-04-11 China has produced a tremendous amount of propaganda justifying its invasion and occupation of Tibet This book reproduces excerpts from some of the most notable of these articles along with a critical analysis The primary themes of Chinese propaganda about Tibet are that Tibet has always been a part of China thus there is no question about Tibetan independence or a Chinese invasion of Tibet that the traditional Tibetan social system was a dark cruel savage feudal hell on earth from which Tibetans welcomed their liberation by the CCP and that China has selflessly assisted Tibetan social and economic development ever since while taking nothing from Tibet China denies the legitimacy of any issues of Tibetan nationalism self determination or any desire by Tibetans for an independent political existence Despite China's claims about the happiness of the Tibetan people Tibetan resistance has continued These excerpts from propaganda articles and documents reveal the political and cultural ideology of the Chinese as they attempt to maintain and justify their control over Tibet The Exotic Other and Negotiation of Tibetan Self Kamila Hladíková, 2013-12-31 This study examines various representations of Tibet in Tibetan and Chinese fiction from the 1980s With its analysis of some of the first Tibetan short stories published approximately a decade after the end of the Cultural Revolution it greatly contributes to the scholarly research of the rise of modern Tibetan literature The image of Tibet that appears in the works of Tibetan authors is there compared with the Chinese representations of Tibet from the same period The analysis is informed by postcolonial theories of literature and is focused mainly on the stereotypes that appear in representation of Tibet both in China and in the west The primary aim of this study is to examine the influence of such stereotypes on Tibetan literary negotiations of their own newly

Tibet's Fate Warren W. Smith Jr., 2023-03-15 Tibet s Fate examines the issue of the political fate of Tibet It is told by Tibetans themselves as well as by the author from his own experiences The title is not meant to imply that the current fate of Tibet is an ultimate destiny or even that Tibet s fate is already decided It is only meant in the sense that if Tibet s fate is now determined it has been determined not by the Tibetan people but by those of China If it is to be determined by China then Tibet s fate is indeed to be an integral part of China However if Tibet s fate were to be decided by the Tibetan people if they were allowed their right to national self determination then it would definitely be different Given all the criteria for independent statehood territory culture language religion and government Tibet surely should be an independent state Tibetan territory defined by altitude was the very nearly exclusively habitation of people who identified themselves as Tibetans Those people share a distinct culture language and religion They had a central government that directly administered the territory of Central Tibet and indirectly that of Kham and Amdo Had Tibetans been allowed to determine for themselves their political status that is if they had the right to self determination as specified in the most fundamental documents of international law there is no doubt that they would have chosen independence Whatever the flaws of the Tibetan social and political systems Tibet should have had the right to determine its own fate and could have done so until deprived of that right by China The book also examines the sensitive question of the nature of the Tibetan political system and its role in the fate that has befallen Tibet The author concludes that the Tibetan political system of Chosi Shungdrel or the unity of religion and politics is implicated in the failure of Tibet to maintain its independence
