crossroads brings cohesion to this project and serves as a guiding principle for its contributors who draw upon Esu's mysteries to illuminate distinctive characteristics of Euba's oeuvre. As a key figure of Wole Soyinka's circle, Euba's literature theory research and artistic practice deeply engage with the works of Soyinka. The contributions to this volume uncover multiple connections between these two artists and break ground in scholarship by considering their works together through comparative analysis. The voices of leading and emerging scholars bring together African Drama, Comparative Literature and Theatre History in an interdisciplinary discourse on Euba which greatly complements his vast achievements. Chapters delve into Euba's cultural theory informed by Esu, particularly his theory of satire and offer insight into many of his creative works including Camwood at Crossroads, Tortoise, The Gulf and The Eye of Gabriel. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Atlantic Studies.

After the Pain Fiona Mills, Keith B. Mitchell, 2006. As a poet, playwright, novelist, short story writer and critic, Gayl Jones has always resisted labels in her quest to find a liberating voice for black women and herself. With a poet's lyricism and a musician's ear for rhythm, she continually seeks new ways to confront the barriers, traumas, insecurities and prejudices oppressing black women and, by extension, all women. After the Pain: Critical Essays on Gayl Jones is the first comprehensive collection of essays dedicated solely to the exploration of Jones's work. Ranging from analyses of her use of language and music to reevaluations of her representation of sexuality and gender roles to examinations of the oft-overlooked connections between Latin America and African Americans, each of these essays investigates Jones's desire to continually complicate the process of identity formation.
