Untitled Subjects Richard Howard, 1969 Fellow Feelings Richard Howard, 1976 Richard Howard Loves Henry James and Other American Writers Richard Howard, 2020-10-27 A lauded American poet's tributes to Walt Whitman and Henry James now collected for the first time Richard Howard has long been recognized as one of America's finest poets celebrated as an author for his keen engagement with other authors and especially for his sparkling and trenchant dramatic monologues and two part inventions Through the years Howard has in this way given voice to all sorts of historical and literary figures but two of his favorite subjects are two of his favorite writers Walt Whitman and Henry James and this book gathers an array of poems in which he responds to these great gay forebears as well as to two other beloved Americans Hart Crane and Wallace Stevens Here Whitman the good gray poet opens his door to Bram Stoker and to Oscar Wilde Henry James struggles to take stock of Los Angeles where he is to have lunch with L Frank Baum Edith Wharton reminisces about her fraught friendship with the Master poor Pansy from The Portrait of a Lady broods on her dreadful father and late in life Wallace Stevens visits Paris as Stevens never did Howard's wonderful inventions are as expansive and celebratory and human as Whitman as deeply and subtly inquiring as James as sumptuously meditative as Stevens and as arresting and delightful as Richard Howard himself

Quantities/Damages Richard Howard, 1984 Modern Poetry After Modernism James Longenbach, 1997 Reading a diverse range of poets John Ashbery Elizabeth Bishop Amy Clampitt Jorie Graham Richard Howard Randall Jarrell Robert Lowell Robert Pinsky and Richard Wilbur Longenbach reveals that American poets since mid century have not so much disowned their modernist past as extended elements of modernism that other readers have suppressed or neglected to see

Alone with America Richard Howard, 1980 When this book was first published in 1969 Richard Howard set himself the overwhelming task of a critical examination in detail of forty one American poets as widely different as James Merrill and Gary Snyder some celebrated and some obscure who had at that time published at least two volumes of work establishing a characteristic identity He thought of these poets as representing and dramatizing the achievement of American poetry since 1950 following the established achievement of Berryman Elizabeth Bishop Jarrell Lowell Roethke and Wilbur In this new and enlarged edition one hundred pages longer than the original volume he has added essays to many of the original chapters dealing with new work by the poets originally examined but leaving the original text unchanged

Chronicle of the Pulitzer Prizes for Poetry Heinz-D. Fischer, 2010-01-13 Joseph Pulitzer had not originally intended to award a prize for poetry An initiative by the Poetry Society of America provided the initial impetus to establish the prize first awarded in 1922 The supplement volume chronicles the whole history of how the awards for this category developed giving an account based mainly on confidential jury protocols from the Pulitzer Prizes office at New York's Columbia University This volume completes the series The Pulitzer Prize Archive

Paper Trail Richard Howard, 2004 Here for the first time is a wide ranging selection of Howard's finest essays including some never before published in book form on a splendid array of subjects from American poets and French artists to modern sculpture and the photography of the human body Modern Poetry Studies ,1976 Quantities Richard Howard,1962 Gay and Lesbian Literary Heritage Claude J. Summers,2014-02-25 The revised edition of The Gay and Lesbian Literary Heritage is a reader's companion to this impressive body of work It provides overviews of gay and lesbian presence in a variety of literatures and historical periods in depth critical essays on major gay and lesbian authors in world literature and briefer treatments of other topics and figures important in appreciating the rich and varied gay and lesbian literary traditions Included are nearly 400 alphabetically arranged articles by more than 175 scholars from around the world New articles in this volume feature authors such as Michael Cunningham Tony Kushner Anne Lister Kate Millet Jan Morris Terrence McNally and Sarah Waters essays on topics such as Comedy of Manners and Autobiography and overviews of Danish Norwegian Philippines and Swedish literatures as well as updated and revised articles and bibliographies The Best American Poetry ,2000

Selected Poems Richard Howard,1991 Performing the Literary Interview John Rodden,2001-01-01 When authors are interviewed about their books or themselves much more is going on than a simple conversation The interview becomes a performance space for authorial orchestration and self promotion and interviewers in turn respond to such self display and theatrics Featuring absorbing conversations with nine well known authors including poets Richard Howard and Gerald Stern novelist Isabel Allende and scholar intellectual Camille Paglia Performing the Literary Interview is the first in depth look at this type of performance art Interviews with poets fiction writers and intellectuals enable John Rodden to identify a range of rhetorical strategies and their effects and to formulate a typology for appreciating the various roles that interviewers and interviewees assume Traditionalists foreground their work rather than themselves raconteurs are storytellers who skillfully spin anecdotes and creatively showcase their personalities and advertisers more explicitly use the literary interview to promote and sell themselves This pioneering persuasive study stakes a claim to a new area of scholarly inquiry in the humanities The literary interview can no longer be considered only as a voyeuristic window on an author or a celebrity vehicle or even an entertaining diversion but should also be approached as a serious genre meriting scholarly attention and analysis Poetry Harriet Monroe,1928 The Silent Treatment Richard Howard,2005 In a recent conversation with Priscilla Becker published by the Poetry Society of America Richard Howard commented that I don't like direct self expression I am more interested in the dialogue of others than in merely the dialogue with another the dialogue of the others who are not me Among the speakers in The Silent Treatment are Hannah Arendt George Eliot Cosima Wagner and a boy in a photograph by Arkansas photographer Mike Disfarmer Like Most Revelations Richard Howard,1994 A collection of monologues elegies and satires on subjects ranging from Mozart to graffiti One is a letter to the New York Times praising Man Who Beat Up Homosexuals Reported to Have AIDS Virus The author won the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry in 1970
