Sustainable Resilient Built Environments Rama Devi Nandineni,Susan Ang,Norwina Binti Mohd

Nawawi,2024-07-05 The proceedings of Sustainable Resilient Built Environments are based on the SRBE 2022 conference held in December 2022 It focuses on the advances under the overarching theme of Sustainability The concept of Sustainability has been conventionally defined as meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs In scientific literature sustainable development has been analysed using different qualitative approaches such as economic social ecological cultural institutional ethical and political In this edited volume the concepts of both sustainability and resilience are considered to open up useful pathways towards achieving sustainable buildings and infrastructure Though the concepts of sustainability and resilience are considered to help improve the built environment the interrelations and interdependence between these two concepts are not clearly evident This has led to the questions such as Is the sustainable built environment always resilient Is the resilient built environment always sustainable What more is needed for sustainability In exploring these pertinent questions the proposed edited volume is expected to unveil and disseminate new insights on the themes related to sustainable and resilient built environment The themes of the proceedings lay a platform for researchers and professionals to integrate the aspects including smart innovation technologies green energy efficiency carbon reduction sustainability and resilience with regard to buildings and other built infrastructure Specific objectives included as per the five themes are as follows Environment Design and Sustainability Sustainable Smart Buildings Community Resilience Social Sustainability Heritage and Sustainability Pandemic issues and sustainable development

Visual Heritage in the Digital Age Eugene Ch'ng, Vincent Gaffney, Henry Chapman, 2013-12-04 Heritage is everywhere and an understanding of our past is increasingly critical to the understanding of our contemporary cultural context and place in global society Visual Heritage in the Digital Age presents the state of the art in the application of digital technologies to heritage studies with the chapters collectively demonstrating the ways in which current developments are liberating the study conservation and management of the past Digital approaches to heritage have developed significantly over recent decades in terms of both the quantity and range of applications However rather than merely improving and enriching the ways in which we understand and engage with the past this technology is enabling us to do this in entirely new ways The chapters contained within this volume present a broad range of technologies for capturing data such as high definition laser scanning survey and geophysical survey modelling including GIS data fusion agent based modelling and engaging with heritage through novel digital interfaces mobile technologies and the use of multi touch interfaces in public spaces The case studies presented include sites landscapes and buildings from across Europe North and Central America and collections relating to the ancient civilisations of the Middle East and North Africa The chronological span is immense extending from the end of the last ice age through to the twentieth century These case studies reveal new ways of approaching heritage using digital tools whether from the perspective of interrogating historical textual data or through the applications of complexity theory and the modelling of agents and behaviours Beyond the data itself Visual Heritage in the Digital Age also presents fresh ways of thinking about digital heritage It explores more theoretical perspectives concerning the role of digital data and the challenges that are presented in terms of its management and preservation

Playwriting Women Cynthia Zimmerman, 1994-09 The Canadian Dramatist Volume 3 The six playwrights discussed in this volume are Carol Bolt Erica Ritter Sharon Pollack Margaret Hollingsworth Anne Chislett and Judith Thompson

Urban Nightmares Steve Macek, 2006 Made-in-Canada Humour Beverly J. Rasporich, 2015-09-15 Made in Canada Humour is an interdisciplinary survey and analysis of Canadian humour and humorists in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The book focuses on a variety of genres It includes celebrated Canadian writers and poets with ironic and satiric perspectives oral storytellers of tall tales in the country and the city newspaper print humorists representative national and regional cartoonists and comedians of stage radio and television The humour gives voice to Canadian values and experiences and consequently techniques and styles of humour particular to the country While a persistent comic theme has been joking at the expense of the United States both countries have influenced one another s humour Canada s unique humorous tradition also reflects its emergence from a colonial country to a postcolonial and postmodern nation with contemporary humour that addresses gender and racial issues

Consuming the Entrepreneurial City Anne Cronin, Kevin Hetherington, 2008-04-07 This collection offers a global perspective on the changing character of cities and the increasing importance that consumer culture plays in defining their symbolic economies Increasingly forms of spectacle have come to shape how cities are imagined and to influence their character and the practices through which we know them from advertising and the selling of real estate to youth cultural consumption practices and forms of entrepreneurship to the regeneration of urban areas under the guise of the heritage industry and the development of a WiFi landscape Using examples of cities such as New York Sydney Atlantic City Barcelona Rio de Janeiro Douala Liverpool San Juan Berlin and Harbin this book illustrates how image and practice have become entangled in the performance of the symbolic economy It also argues that it is not just how the urban present is being shaped in this way that is significant to the development of cities but also that a prominent feature of their development has been the spectacular imagining of the past as heritage and through regeneration Yet the ghosts that this conjures up in practice offer us a possible form of political unsettlement and alternative ways of viewing cities that is only just beginning to be explored Through this important collection by some of the leading analysts of consumption cities and space Consuming the Entrepreneurial City offers a cutting edge analysis of the ways in which cities are developing and the implications this has for their future It is essential reading for students of Urban Studies Geography Sociology Cultural Studies Heritage Studies and Anthropology

Environment in Key Words Isaac Paenson, 2016-06-28 Environmental problems ignore international boundaries Toxic wastes travel by water and air sometimes displacing the effects of an environmental disaster entirely outside of its country of origin It is now understood that to overcome the problems that face us international co operation is required This important work is designed to assist in that process by helping to break down the language barriers that stand between countries The manual written in parallel English German French and Russian texts provides the basic tools of communication in the specialized fields of environmental sciences between speakers of these languages Each chapter has been revised in each separate language by specialists in the field to guarantee the authenticity of the information presented The author is unique in his approach presenting the key words in context as opposed to simple glossary entries allowing the reader to fully understand the complex relations between the word and the concepts involved A comprehensive index written in all four languages guides the reader through the text providing references to the words as they are used in different disciplines
