Western Rising:

The Western Rising, 1549 Philip Caraman,1994 The Western Rising of 1549 Mark Stoye,2022-08-23 The fascinating story of the so called Prayer Book Rebellion of 1549 which saw the people of Devon and Cornwall rise up against the Crown The Western Rising of 1549 was the most catastrophic event to occur in Devon and Cornwall between the Black Death and the Civil War Beginning as an argument between two men and their vicar the rebellion led to a siege of Exeter savage battles with Crown forces and the deaths of 4 000 local men and women It represents the most determined attempt by ordinary English people to halt the religious reformation of the Tudor period Mark Stoye tells the story of the so called Prayer Book Rebellion in full Correcting the accepted narrative in a number of places Stoye shows that the government in London saw the rebels as a real threat He demonstrates the importance of regional identity and emphasizes that religion was at the heart of the uprising This definitive account brings to life the stories of the thousands of men and women who acted to defend their faith almost five hundred years ago The Western Rising Charles Chenevix Trench,1969 The Last Popular Rebellion Robin Clifton,1984 The Western rising Charles Chenevix Trench,1969 Assyria and the West Pieter van der Veen,Ronald Wallenfels,2025-07-10 This volume re examines key chronological anchors of the Late Bronze and Iron Ages questioning the reliability of synchronisms between Egypt and Mesopotamia Focusing on artistic archaeological and historical data the contributors explore shifting timelines and tensions in Assyrian Hittite and Levantine contexts The End of China's Non-Intervention Policy in Africa Obert Hodzi,2018-10-22 This book gives a compelling analysis and explanation of shifts in China's non intervention policy in Africa Systematically connecting the neoclassical realist theoretical logic with an empirical analysis of China's intervention in African civil wars the volume highlights a methodical interlink between theoretical and empirical analysis that takes into consideration the changing status of rising powers in the global system and its effect on their intervention behaviour Based on field research and expert interviews it provides a rigorous analysis of China's emergent intervention behaviour in some key African conflicts in Libya South Sudan and Mali and broadens the study of external interventions in civil wars to include the intervention behaviour of non Western rising powers Obert Hodzi is Visiting Researcher at the African Studies Center Boston University USA and Postdoctoral Researcher at the University of Helsinki Finland American Images of China Oliver Turner,2014-04-16 The United States and China are arguably the most globally consequential actors of the early twenty first century and look set to remain so into the foreseeable future This volume seeks to highlight that American images of China are responsible for constructing certain truths and realities about that country and its people It also introduces the understanding that these images have always been inextricable from the enactment and justification of US China policies in Washington and that those policies themselves are active in the production and reproduction of imagery and in the protection of American identity when seemingly threatened by that of China Demonstrating how past American images of China are vital to understanding the nature and significance of those which circulate today Turner addresses three key questions What have been the dominant American images of China and the Chinese across the full lifespan of Sino US relations How have historical and contemporary American images of China and the Chinese enabled and justified US China policy What role does US China policy play in the production and reproduction of American images of China Exploring and evaluating a wide ranging variety of sources including films and television programmes newspaper and magazine articles the records and journals of politicians and diplomats and governmental documents including speeches and legal declarations this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of US foreign policy American politics China studies and international relations

Building the Church of England Stephen Tong,2023-06-12 Were mid Tudor evangelicals roaring lions or meek lambs Did they struggle with a minority complex or were they comfortable with their position of political ascendancy under Edward VI How did their theological blueprint of the True Church fit their temporal realities By relocating the Book of Common Prayer at the centre of the English Reformation Stephen Tong gives new significance to two underacknowledged drivers of reform ecclesiology and liturgy Edwardian reformers caused a sensation in England by engaging with these questions which spilled over into Ireland and continued to cast a shadow over subsequent generations of the English Protestants

Chatterbox ,1909 The Oxford Handbook of History and International Relations Mlada Bukovansky,Edward Keene,Christian Reus-Smit,Maja Spanu,2023-08-03 Historical approaches to the study of world politics have always been a major part of the academic discipline of International Relations and there has recently been a resurgence of scholarly interest in this area This Oxford Handbook examines the past and present of the intersection between history and IR and looks to the future by laying out new questions and directions for research Seeking to transcend well worn disciplinary debates between historians and IR scholars the Handbook asks authors from both fields to engage with the central themes of modernity and granularity Modernity is one of the basic organising categories of speculation about continuity and discontinuity in the history of world politics but one that is increasingly questioned for privileging one kind of experience and marginalizing others The theme of granularity highlights the importance of how decisions about the scale and scope of historical research in IR shape what can be seen and how one sees it Together these themes provide points of affinity across the wide range of topics and approaches presented here The Handbook is organized into four parts The first Readings gives a state of the art analysis of numerous aspects of the disciplinary encounter between historians and IR theorists Thereafter sections on Practices Locales and Moments offer a wide variety of perspectives from the longue dur e to the ephemeral individual moment and challenge many conventional ways of defining the contexts of historical enquiry about international relations Contributors come from a range of academic backgrounds and present a diverse array of methodological and philosophical ideas as well as their various historical interests The Oxford Handbooks of International Relations is a twelve volume set of reference books offering authoritative and innovative engagements with the principal sub fields of International Relations The series as a whole is under the General Editorship of Christian Reus Smit of the University of Queensland and Duncan Snidal of the University of Oxford with each volume edited by specialists in the field The series both surveys the broad terrain of International Relations scholarship and reshapes it pushing each sub field in challenging new directions Following the example of Reus Smit and Snidal s original Oxford Handbook of International Relations each volume is organized around a strong central thematic by scholars drawn from different perspectives reading its sub field in an entirely new way and pushing scholarship in challenging new directions
