Ashley, Zachary Alden Smith, 1999-01-01 One of the greatest conundrums facing the arid western United States is the availability use and quality of groundwater In large sections of the West groundwater is the only dependable source of water for agricultural production and home consumption Yet many of the aquifers are being depleted at a rate that will suck them dry within a century Furthermore dependence upon groundwater in many areas will only increase in the future This dependence is already having serious consequences for small towns on the Great Plains Faced with growing costs associated with deeper wells and the need for ever more advanced technology for extracting water these towns find they lack the resources to maintain current agricultural practices In this timely assessment of the West s groundwater resources the authors provide a detailed overview of groundwater management in the Western states The authors present for each state the various management strategies laws and political realities that have made groundwater appropriation such a volatile subject They also suggest possible difficulties that states and regions might face under current groundwater policies By examining separate cases and viewing the West as a whole the authors are able to identify not only the most pressing problems but also the most appropriate management techniques for protecting water supplies for future use Code of Federal Regulations, 2014 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries Arizona Revised Statutes Title 12 Courts 2020 Edition Arizona Legislature, 2020-02-06 This book was revised on February 7 2020 to conform to the 2019 Legislative Session Arizona Revised Statutes Title 29 Partnership 2020 Edition Arizona Legislature, 2020-02-14 This book was revised on February 14 2020 to conform to the 2019 Legislative Session West's Arizona Law Finder, 2002 2018 CFR Annual Digital e-Book Edition, 40 Protection of Environment - Part 52 (52.01 to 52.1018 Office of The Federal Register, 2018-07-01 Part 52 52 01 to 52 1018 Volume 3
