Westward Vision David Lavender, 1985-01-01 In one very real sense David Lavender writes the story of the Oregon Trail begins with Columbus This opening suggests the panoramic sweep of his history of that famous trail In chiseled colorful prose Lavender illustrates the westward vision that impelled the early explorers of the American interior looking for a northwest passage and send fur trappers into the region charted by Lewis and Clark For the emigrants following the trappers routes that vision gradually grew into a sense of a manifest American destiny Lavender describes the efforts of emigration societies of missionaries like Marcus and Narcissa Whitman and of early pioneer settlers like Hall Jackson Kelley Jason Lee and Thomas Jefferson Farnham as well as the routes they took to the Promised Land He concludes by recounting the first large scale emigrations of 1843-45 which steered the U S government for war with Mexico and agreements with Britain over the Oregon boundary Westward vision : the story of the Oregon Trail David Sievert Lavender, 1971 Westward Vision. The Story of the Oregon Trail ... With Illustrations by Marian Ebert David Lavender, 1965 Manifest Destinies Steven E. Woodworth, 2011-11-01 A sweeping history of the 1840s Manifest Destinies captures the enormous sense of possibility that inspired America's growth and shows how the acquisition of western territories forced the nation to come to grips with the deep fault line that would bring war in the near future Steven E Woodworth gives us a portrait of America at its most vibrant and expansive It was a decade in which the nation significantly enlarged its boundaries taking Texas New Mexico California and the Pacific Northwest William Henry Harrison ran the first modern populist campaign focusing on entertaining voters rather than on discussing issues prospectors headed west to search for gold Joseph Smith founded a new religion railroads and telegraph lines connected the country's disparate populations as never before When the 1840s dawned Americans were feeling optimistic about the future the population was growing economic conditions were improving and peace had reigned for nearly thirty years A hopeful nation looked to the West where vast areas of unsettled land seemed to promise prosperity to anyone resourceful enough to take advantage And yet political tensions roiled below the surface as the country took on new lands slavery emerged as an irreconcilable source of disagreement between North and South and secession reared its head for the first time Rich in detail and full of dramatic events and fascinating characters Manifest Destinies is an absorbing and highly entertaining account of a crucial decade that forged a young nation's character and destiny Visions of the American West Gerald F. Kreyche, 2021-11-21 Countless studies of the American West have been written from the viewpoint of history psychology sociology and anthropology But the West has seldom been written about with the reflective pen of a philosopher Offering more than a fresh retelling in thoroughly human terms of the major historical events of the nineteenth century West Gerald Kreyche also leads the reader in a search for the spirit of the West itself That spirit was one with the American Dream which offered freedom individualism and self sufficiency to those strong enough and gutsy enough to heed the call of Manifest Destiny Although the West was and is the most American part of America itself its natural wonders its spacious grandeur its myths and mystique have captured the hearts and imaginations of people the world over We have all experienced the quickened pulse at the mention of things indelibly western tumbleweed mountain men high plains cowboys and Indians sod houses coyotes and grizzlies And who doesn't react to such bigger than life figures as Jim Bridger Buffalo Bill George Armstrong Custer Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse The personal humdrum of our times rapidly disappears when through the magic of western films TV shows and books we vicariously lose ourselves and then find ourselves in the American West of a bygone time The West then produced a quasi separate culture And as each culture must it gave birth to its own ethos its own special character its own tone and set of guiding beliefs Kreyche contends that in the process of westering the veneer of the sophisticated easterner was sloughed off leaving in sharp outline the frontiersman and the pioneer In their own manner these men and women produced a new species of homo americanus The Mentor ,1913 The Pacific Historical Review Anna Marie Hager,1976 The Oregon Trail Francis Parkman,1994-01-01 The Oregon Trail is the gripping account of Francis Parkman's journey west across North America in 1846 After crossing the Allegheny Mountains by coach and continuing by boat and wagon to Westport Missouri he set out with three companions on a horseback journey that would ultimately take him over two thousand miles Map Last Bonanza Kings Ferol Egan,2009-08-28 Much of the wealth from the great mining bonanzas of the nineteenth century American West flowed into San Francisco and made possible the growth of the city and some fabulous personal fortunes Among the wealthiest and most powerful of the Bonanza Kings were William Bowers Bourn I and his son and successor William Bowers Bourn II Their wealth came from rich mines in Nevada's Comstock Lode and Treasure Hill and California's Sierra foothills as well as astute business ventures in the booming port city of San Francisco Last Bonanza Kings tells their story with all the colorful detail and sweeping sense of epic drama that the characters and their times demand setting them into the turbulent context of an age of rampant financial and civic growth major technological advances in mining lavish philanthropy and opulent personal lifestyles Tree Planting Book American Tree Association,1927 Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review ,1898 Westward vision David Lavender,1963 Ridpath's Universal History John Clark Ridpath,1899 Ballads of the West William Earl Harvey,1920 The Southeastern Reporter ,1922 The Fleet ,1915 Kentucky School Journal ,1928 Includes section Book reviews Bulletin Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association,1925 Mid-continental Transportation Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association,1929 Poet Lore ,1897
