Wexler Raleigh James Robinette,2005-07-01 Someone once said that the ancients did things by doing business in their own way not by gaping at their grandfathers tombs and that normal man will do likewise Wexler Raleigh may not be a normal man He does visit the cemetery on the grounds of the rural castle he calls home but doesn t go there to gape He goes in search of a special friend when he is feeling down in the dumps which is often enough as he shuffles through life more or less alone until a young man comes to tune his mother s harp Wexler s life begins to open up from that day forward He is not so shy anymore he meets a new girl from up the road and all seems well until Wexler decides to do away with his parents just as soon as he can locate their whereabouts
