The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2003 Multicultural Worship Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2023-08-29 We live in an unprecedentedly globalized multicultural world in the 21st century. Christian churches and worship leaders are challenged to be conscious of the significant impact of multiculturalism within and beyond the church and provide worshipers with theologically faithful and culturally appropriate worship services. As a response to these challenges, this Special Issue deals with various multicultural issues emerging from contemporary liturgical contexts. What is multicultural worship? Why should Christian worship be multicultural? How can multicultural worship be designed to be relevant to a particular liturgical context? How can liturgical elements (e.g., worship space, symbols, language, sermons, prayers, music, and sacraments) be prepared from the multicultural perspective? This Special Issue provides worship leaders with theological and liturgical insights into exploring these questions and developing their theology and method of multicultural worship. In addition, sample liturgies and case studies with annotations offer concrete examples of multicultural worship. The scope of this Special Issue includes five areas: 1) multicultural worship in multiracial or multiethnic contexts; 2) multicultural worship in monoracial or monoethnic contexts; 3) multicultural worship in multigenerational contexts; 4) multicultural worship in ecumenical contexts; and 5) multicultural worship in multireligious contexts. While there are some resources available for studying multicultural worship, this volume uniquely contributes with diverse cultural approaches to various liturgical contexts.

Morris, Canadian Council for Multicultural and Intercultural Education, 1989 Paradigms from Luke-Acts for Multicultural Communities Richard B. Harms, 2001. This book proposes a theology of mission that is simultaneously Evangelical, Catholic, and Liberationist. The biblical foundation is Luke Acts and the context is the church in California. The focus is on mission and ministry with the fastest growing ethnic cultural minority population, Latino/Latina. Although there is a historical research basis for this book, the emphasis is on the current practice and future praxis. First-century Lukan paradigms lead to a proclamation based on service and salvation: The Good News is for the poor and for every nation under Heaven.
