Taras Song:

Blood and Salt Barbara Sapergia, 2012-08-01 The central character Taras Kalyna has run away from the Austrian army on the brink of World War I to follow his love Halya to Canada. He can't know how hard it will be to find her again or that his search will be interrupted by two years in what some have called Canada's Gulag. Because Ukrainians come from Austrian ruled territories they will be classed as enemy aliens and confined behind barbed wire in internment camps. Not every single Ukrainian the emphasis was on the unemployed the political such as union activists and people who were in somebody's way. The novel involves class relations. Halya's ambitious father gets her a job as companion to a rich woman Louisa Shawcross. Louisa is the mother of Ronnie Shawcross Taras's boss at the small town brick plant and he falls in love with Halya. Taras becomes a person in his way. Ronnie denounces him to the police. By the end of the story Taras and Halya do come together again. Taras has come to love the southern Saskatchewan landscape and raises horses like the one he saw in a dream as a young man in the old country. Storytelling is an important element. To explain why he'll never return to the old country Taras begins a tale about why he left which lasts for most of the time in camp and helps to sustain the men's spirits. Another character Myro a teacher tells stories about the great 19th century Ukrainian poet and patriot Taras Shevchenko. In these stories the narrative moves to the poet's point of view. We see him in St Petersburg and elsewhere and we learn of his own internment his exile to eastern Russia.

Repetition and Creation Radosvet Kolarov, 2020-12-29 This book advances the notion of autotextuality the dialogue between works in an author's oeuvre and the ways in which new texts are created in self repetition through the tracing and revisiting of past texts and the subsequent uncovering of undisclosed meanings unexhausted constructive principles and alternative versions. Kolarov draws on cognitive models such as dual coding theory and conceptual blending to substantiate a theory of autotextuality and build on previous work on self repetition and difference to highlight the notion of discursive desire in which new meanings are generated through repetition and its distinct relationship to creativity. Drawing on analyses of well established works in Bulgarian as well as the established oeuvres of such authors as Gogol Dostoevsky Kafka and Baudelaire the volume explores key themes in autotextuality such as the functions of creative memory the connections between word and image and the hermeneutic relationships and steps of transformation between texts. This innovative work addresses topical questions of importance in literary theory today and will be of interest to students and scholars in literary studies and related areas of study within such fields as cognitive science quantum mechanics and psychology.
