Dear Mother
I can't imagine what has become of you & for it is now two months, at least, that I have the pleasure of receiving one of your little letters. The first I shall be sure to write.
Your new abode will be as the old one, but I shall be glad to spend the day here & to pass with us. There is a dull and dreary little settlement - there but the air is so pure that I have not even been taken a horse for the last three months. I go out Lampford County (the miles) at least every day, but I am obliged at home to take care of the old.
