Tibetan Diary:

Tibetan Diary Geoff Childs, 2004-09-27 In this rich and deeply personal account of life in the highlands of Nepal Geoff Childs chronicles the daily existence of a range of people from venerated lamas to humble householders Offering insights into the complex dynamics of the ethnically Tibetan enclave of Nubri Childs provides a vivid and compelling portrait of the ebb and flow of life and death of communal harmony and discord and of personal conflicts and social resolutions Part ethnography part travelogue and part biography Tibetan Diary is a one of a kind book that conveys the tangled intricacies of a Tibetan society Childs s immensely readable and informative narrative incorporates contemporary observations as well as vignettes culled from first person testaments including oral histories and autobiographies Examining the tensions between cultural ideals and individual aspirations he explores certain junctures in the course of life how the desire to attain religious knowledge or to secure a caretaker in old age contrasts with social expectations and familial obligation for example The result is a vivid and unparalleled view of the quest for both spiritual meaning and mundane survival that typifies life in an unpredictable Himalayan environment

Tibetan Diary Geoff H. Childs, 2004 High in the Nepali Himalaya are a number of ethnic Tibetan communities Geoff Childs presents a portrait of Nubri Kutang in which he chronicles the daily lives of community members in all their tangled intricacies

Frontier Tibet Stéphane Gros, 2025-10-01 Frontier Tibet Patterns of Change in the Sino Tibetan Borderlands addresses a historical sequence that sealed the future of the Sino Tibetan borderlands It considers how starting in the late nineteenth century imperial formations and emerging nation states developed competing schemes of integration and debated about where the border between China and Tibet should be It also ponders the ways in which this border is internalised today creating within the People s Republic of China a space that retains some characteristics of a historical frontier The region of eastern Tibet called Kham the focus of this volume is a productive lens through which processes of place making and frontier dynamics can be analysed Using historical records and ethnography the authors challenge purely externalist approaches to convey a sense of Kham s own centrality and the agency of the actors involved They contribute to a history from below that is relevant to the history of China and Tibet and of comparative value for borderland studies

Little Buddhas Vanessa R. Sasson, 2013 Edited by Vanessa R Sasson Little Buddhas brings together a wide range of scholarship and expertise to address the question of what role children have played in Buddhist literature in particular historical contexts and their role in specific Buddhist contexts today

The Selfless Ego Lucia Galli, Franz Xaver Erhard, 2021-05-13 The essays collected in The Selfless Ego propose an innovative approach to one of the most fascinating aspects of Tibetan literature life writing Departing from past schemes of interpretation this book addresses issues of literary theory and identity construction eluding the strictures imposed by the adoption of the hagiographical master narrative as synonymous with the genre The book is divided into two parts Ideally conceived as an introduction to traditional forms of life writing as expressed in Buddhist milieus Part I Memory and Imagination in Tibetan Hagiographical Writing centres on the inner tensions between literary convention and self expression that permeate indigenous hagiographies mystical songs records of teachings and autobiographies Part II Conjuring Tibetan Lives explores the most unconventional traits of the genre sifting through the narrative configuration of Tibetan biographical writings as liberation stories to unearth those fragments of life that compose an individual s multifaceted existence This volume is the first to approach Tibetan life writing from a literary and narratological perspective encompassing a wide range of disciplines themes media and historical periods and thus opening new and vibrant areas of research to future scholarship across the Humanities The chapters in this book were originally published as two special issues of Life Writing Report of a Mission to Sikkim and the Tibetan Frontier Colman Macaulay,1885 Buddhists Todd Lewis,2014-04-02 Buddhists Understanding Buddhism through the Lives of Practitioners provides a series of case studies of Asian and modern Western Buddhists spanning history gender and class whose lives are representative of the ways in which Buddhists throughout time have embodied the tradition Portrays the foundational principles of Buddhist belief through the lives of believers illustrating how the religion is put into practice in everyday life Takes as its foundation the inherent diversity within Buddhist society rather than focusing on the spiritual and philosophical elite within Buddhism Reveals how individuals have negotiated the choices tensions and rewards of living in a Buddhist society Features carefully chosen case studies which cover a range of Asian and modern Western Buddhists Explores a broad range of possible Buddhist orientations in contemporary and historical contexts Diary of a Journey Across Tibet Hamilton Bower,2015-09-02 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Diary of a Journey Across Tibet Hamilton Bower,2018-02-15 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in
