Taboo Topics Norman L. Farberow,2017-07-05 Why is it so hard to investigate taboo topics A myriad of forces shape and fashion human action reaction thought and feeling and these are not always well understood Norman L Farberow argues that culture itself provides structure for its members developing in a well defined way the rules to which they will conform Such rules find expression not only in written laws and regulations but include and most often stem from unwritten folkways customs and especially taboos the subject of this book The researchers reporting in this volume take no position on the nature of a taboo itself but concentrate on the difficulty in investigating taboos As members of society and human beings they do make judgments and personal investments Thus when taboos continue or develop without useful society enriching functions or facilitate self destructive activities they raise questions about why they persist Such topics include many areas some social such as sex death and peace others more academic such as parapsychology graphology religion and hypnosis

Peace and the public are included in the discussion because they are emotion laden areas and powerful and important factors in a shrinking world and expanding universe Peace especially has begun to be looked upon with suspicion perhaps a real commentary on our times This probing collection will be sure to interest sociologists anthropologists and all other social scientists

The Forest of Taboos Valerio Valeri,2000 The Forest of Taboos may be considered among the most important books ever written by an anthropologist Valeri writes superbly and this book makes a fundamental contribution to one of the most central lines of thought in twentieth century anthropology He shows that taboo is finally comprehensible John Stephen Lansing University of Michigan The Forest of Taboos is no conventional ethnography more an extended meditative essay on its subject erudite rich in ideas and data wide ranging in its theoretical inspiration and self consciously literary in form It is a fitting memorial to an author whose life was so tragically cut short Roy Ellen University of Kent at Canterbury This eloquent and profound book completed by Valerio Valeri shortly before his death in 1998 contends that the ambivalence felt by all humans about sex death and eating other animals can be explained by a set of coordinated principles that are expressed in taboos In elegant prose Valeri evokes the world of the Huauilu forest hunters of Indonesia The hidden attractions of the animal world which invades the human world in perilous ways he shows also delineate that which the Huauilu regard as most human about themselves
