Lift-luck on Southern Roads Tickner Edwardes,1910 So here for you is the tale of my latest solitary ramble The journey covers as you shall see some two hundred odd miles through five southern counties and was conceived on an unusual plan For I went neither on foot nor by any of the wonted means of conveyance beloved of tourists neither by motor nor cycle phaeton nor ambling nag Moreover I kept clear of the main roads and with two exceptions the great towns shunned nearly all the guide book points of interest sought out the least frequented lanes and by paths and found my history in the happy places that have no history other than that writ large over their moss green roofs and lichened walls the English villages which as I look back on the long white road of the journey lie in the memory now like pearls on a silver string Take from dedication
