Touching The Untouchables:

What Congress & Gandhi Have done to the Untouchables Dr. Baba Saheb Ambedkar, 1946 One Touch from the King Changes Everything Mark Stibbe, 2010-09-01 Sometimes something happens in your Christian life and it changes your world forever sociologists call it a paradigm shift Such a change happened to Mark Stibbe and this book is the result One Touch from the King is about how God can radically transform our lives with one simple touch One moment of divine contact can bring an invasion of heaven into our world that means we can never be the same again Filled with Mark Stibbe's trademark combination of sound biblical teaching and hands on practical experience this book will encourage you to a new level of faith Ambedkar's Struggle Against Untouchability :Striving For An Equal Society Dr. Manoj Singh. Paraskeva, 2023-07-27 This volume represents the first exploration of caste in the field of curriculum studies challenging the ongoing silence around the issue of caste in education and curriculum theory Presenting comprehensive critical examination of caste as a category of domination and oppression in the colonial power matrix chapters confront Eurocentric educational epistemologies which deny the existence and influence of caste The book examines the impact of such silence in educational policy praxis and curriculum and draws from leading scholars to illustrate the fluidity of power and oppression in the caste system By challenging historical cultural and institutional origins of caste and foregrounding perspectives from outside Western epistemological frameworks the book pioneers a critical approach to integrating caste in educational debate to interrupt social and cognitive injustices In so doing so the volume advocates for an alternative non derivative curriculum reason through an itinerant curriculum theory as a path toward the emergence of a critical Dalit educational theory As such it makes a vital contribution for scholars and researchers looking to refine and enhance their knowledge of curriculum studies by highlighting the importance of theorizing caste in the role of education The Cracked

Mirror Gopal Guru, Sundar Sarukkai, 2018-02-15 Western constructs giving precedence to ideas over experience have for long dominated theorization in Indian social sciences Problematizing their tenuous relationship this book presents a passionate plea to create new frameworks for describing contemporary Indian social experiences Using a dialogic form and placing the reality of untouchability and Dalit life at the centre of analyses Gopal Guru and Sundar Sarukkai examine the ontological and epistemological nature of experience thereby exhibiting the politics of experience By illustrating ways of using alternative frameworks for theorizing The Cracked Mirror argues for a more careful understanding of the ethics of representation

The Untouchables Oliver Mendelsohn, Marika Vicziany, 1998-04-30 In a sensitive and compelling account of the lives of those at the very bottom of Indian society Oliver Mendelsohn and Marika Vicziany explore the construction of the Untouchables as a social and political category the historical background which led to such a definition and their position in India today The authors argue that despite efforts to ameliorate their condition on the part of the state a considerable edifice of discrimination persists on the basis of a tradition of ritual subordination Even now therefore it still makes sense to categorise these people as Untouchables The book promises to make a major contribution to the social and economic debates on poverty while its wide ranging perspectives will ensure an interdisciplinary readership from historians of South Asia to students of politics economics religion and sociology

Reaching the Unreached Barry Blackstone, 2023-11-09 Have you ever imagined a trip back in time Have you ever dreamed of exploring a native village that hasn't changed from its primitive past Have you ever thought what it might be like to take the Gospel to an unreached people group Since 1972 Barry Blackstone a pastor from Maine has imagined dreamed and thought of doing just that again Those imaginations began with a trip to the deserts of Western Australia recorded in his published book The Region Beyond to minister to an Aboriginal tribe that had just been reached but it wasn't until 2022 that this dream was fulfilled once more Travel again with Pastor Blackstone to the remote tribal villages in Chhattisgarh and Kerala India Experience again the thrill of proclaiming God's word to villagers so removed from the modern world that the only way to reach them is by foot It was on this trip that this pastor of fifty years learned why the apostle Paul said How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace and bring glad tidings of good things Rom 10:15 Share in a baptism in a concrete water storage tank for goats witness the first graduation of an institute educating natives to reach their own tribes with the good news of Jesus Christ experience the thrill of preaching to four native churches on one's seventy-first birthday walk over a forest trail up a steep incline through virgin trees for nearly a mile before coming to a hidden hamlet where many of the people live in trees then return to the modern world to be the graduation speaker for the fourth time at Kerala Baptist Bible College The contrasts will be epic the connections will be eternal and the cultures will be eye-opening This was Pastor Blackstone's sixth journey into the unknowns of India and perhaps his most dramatic
